

Mr. Flint's Lesson Plans
7th Grade Social Studies
Week of August 31

Date	Objective	Activities	Assessment
8/31	I am learning who the enlightenment thinkers were , their major beliefs, and their impact on changes throughout Europe and the Americas. I am also learning about how the ideas of enlightenment thinkers would help promote change in governments of European countries.	Students will be reviewing for their assessment on the Enlightenment time period, answering a deeper meaning questions as practice for elaborating on their response	Review all Enlightenment notes, review questions, and please have a charged chrome book ready each day
9/1	I am learning who the enlightenment thinkers were , their major beliefs, and their impact on changes throughout Europe and the Americas. I am also learning about how the ideas of enlightenment thinkers would help promote change in governments of European countries.	Students will complete the assessment on The Enlightenment. Class discussion and final thoughts of reflection on the unit in their ISN.	Please have a charged chrome book ready each day
9/2	I am learning how the American colonists lived under British rule during their early years.	Students will begin to read, take key notes, and complete ISN vocab & deeper thinking activities on the growing American colonies	Review Early Colonists notes, review questions, and please have a charged chrome book ready each day
9/3	I am learning how specific events would lead to conflicts between Britain and its American colonies.	Students will begin to read, take key notes, and complete ISN vocab & Critical thinking activities on critical events from the French & Indian war that will shape increased tension between Britain and colonies.	Review French & Indian war notes, review questions, and please have a charged chrome book ready each day
9/4	I am learning how new British taxes and tighter control on the colonists would increase tension and new colonial anger/protest	Students will read article on Britain's new plan to collect taxes from colonists, add key vocab, notes, and answer vocabulary, context clues, and textual evidence questions	Please review- Acts and Taxes skills builder, key terms and vocab.

Please Note- Weekly lesson plans are subject to change.