

Teacher Candidate Self-Assessment of Dispositions

A disposition is a habit of mind and emotion that one displays over a length of time; it is evident through a person's behavior and in relationships with others. Please take some time to rate yourself as a student in this class.

Disposition	Never	Sometimes	Often	Always
1. I consider alternative and contradictory opinions and often demonstrate respect for gender, sexual orientation, and ethnic differences.
2. My interactions with adults and children are friendly, warm, caring, polite, and respectful.
3. I value learning, have high expectations for myself, and take pride in the quality of my work.
4. I respond confidently, appropriately, respectfully to other adults and children.
5. My spoken and written language is clear and correct, audible, and legible.
6. I consider myself to be flexible and demonstrates appropriate emotional and behavioral responses in all situations.
7. I complete assignments in a timely manner, and they are correctly done.
8. I enjoy engaging in discussions and sharing information with people.
9. I am supportive of my colleagues; always have a professional and positive attitude, and I take responsibility for my actions.
10. I consider myself a lifelong learner; actively seek professional learning to enhance my knowledge and skills.
11. I address negative attitudes, and regularly take a leadership role in my professional and personal interactions.
12. I am willing to commit to understanding and participating in the TAPP program requirements and school improvement process with a positive attitude.
13. I am willing to commit to understanding and consistently practice and model the Georgia Code of Ethics.
14. I am willing to commit to constantly reflect on my teaching practices, analyze student achievement data, and adjust my performance based on feedback.				