Language Arts	We are learning these uppercase and lowercase letters: Mm, Tt, Short Vowel Aa, Ss, Bb, Nn, Dd. We are learning to spell and write first & last names. We are learning to write capital and lowercase letters of the alphabet. We are learning to identify and produce rhyming words like car and bar. We are learning to identify the beginning sounds of words. For example, car begins with /c/ and bike begins with /b/. We are learning to read the following irregular words: a, the, as, to, do, I, is, was, you.
Math	We are learning to Sort Objects by different Attributes and Count the Sort. We are learning to Count, Read and Write Numbers 0 to 5. We are learning to Compare and Order Numbers 0 to 5 (more, less, and equal sets). We are learning Three-Dimensional Shapes (cube, sphere, cone, cylinder). We are learning about how much something weighs (Is it heavy or light?). See Math Family Letters in their homework folders as we start each new skill in September.
Science/Social Studies	We are learning about living and non-living objects: We can determine if an object is living or nonliving. We can tell why the object is living or nonliving. We are learning about different symbols of America: We can identify the American flag. We can say the Pledge of Allegiance.
