2. As we celebrate 250 years of America's founding in 2026, think of a woman whose courage or leadership inspires you — she could be someone in your own life or someone you've learned about in school. Who would you choose to shine a spotlight on, and why does her story matter to you? Has there been a time when you tried to lead or take action in the ways that she did? (150–200 words)

3. Sisterhood is at the heart of the Kent Place community — girls supporting girls as they learn and grow together. Describe a moment when you felt sisterhood in action, whether through a classmate, a friend, or even an older student. Why did that moment matter to you? (150–200 words)
