Name of Applicant _____

Present Grade _____ Applying for entrance to Grade _____ at Kent Place

1. Kent Place challenges young women to be bold, intellectually curious thinkers. What's an idea, question, or subject you find yourself returning to again and again — something you'd choose to explore even if it weren't assigned? Why does it captivate you, and how has your thinking on it evolved as you've dug deeper? (150–200 words)

2. As we celebrate 250 years of America's founding in 2026, think of a woman whose courage or leadership has shaped how you see the world. She could be someone in your own life or someone you've studied. Who would you choose to spotlight, and why does her story resonate with you? Describe a moment when you tried to lead or advocate for something in a way that reflects her influence on you. (150–200 words)

3. Sisterhood is at the heart of the Kent Place community, where young women support one another as they learn, challenge each other, and grow. Describe a relationship or moment that demonstrated true sisterhood for you. What did it teach you about the kind of community member you wish to be? (150–200 words)
