

What it means to be a student at DelCampo

Our values describe why you learn; the statements below are how you show them, every day.

WHY I LEARN Our Four Values the convictions I hold

Empathy

Understanding and caring about others' feelings and perspectives; showing kindness and support to peers and teachers.

Respect

Treating peers, teachers, and staff with politeness and recognizing differences; following school rules and showing care for shared spaces.

Integrity

Being honest in actions and words; taking responsibility for mistakes and demonstrating fairness in academic and social situations.

Passion

Showing enthusiasm for learning, participating actively in school activities, and pursuing personal interests and goals.

THAT SHAPE WHO I BECOME —

WHO I BECOME The DCS Student Profile seven attributes I grow into

01 Collaborative

Learning is better together.

02 Growth Mindset

Mistakes are how we grow.

03 Critical Thinker

Questions before answers.

04 Emotionally Intelligent

Aware of self and others.

05 Well-Rounded

So much more than a grade.

06 Academically Competent

Mastery to build upon.

07 Life-Long Learner

Curiosity that never ends.

AND LIVED EVERY DAY AS —

WHAT WE EXPECT TO SEE The Student Profile in practice, every day

LEARNING

In the classroom

— Come ready to think — ask questions and take on challenges.

— Own your progress: set goals and learn from mistakes.

— Carry your curiosity beyond the lesson, into the wider world.

COMMUNITY

With peers

— Work as a teammate — listen, share, and help others.

— Be kind to everyone; welcome those who are left out.

— Read the room — aware of your own feelings and others'.

INTEGRITY

In character

— Be honest in word and action; own it when things go wrong.

— Play fair and do right, even when no one is watching.

— Respect people, rules, and the spaces you share.

GROWTH

Beyond the books

— Get involved — sports, arts, clubs, and service.

— Pursue your passions and goals worth chasing.

— Treat learning as something that never stops.

Me — not only prepared for the world, but inspired to shape it.
