SCHOOL RESPONSIBILITIES

Provide High-Quality Curriculum and Instruction

WHS offers a state-mandated curriculum incorporating High Quality Instructional Materials. Our teachers excel in differentiated instruction and work within Professional Learning Communities to meet all students' needs.

Tutorial Sessions

- Teacher-facilitated before and after school based on teacher availability.
- During Tribe Time.
- Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays: 4:30-6:30 p.m. in the WHS Library

Hold Parent-Teacher Conferences

Conferences are scheduled by teachers, parents, or principals/counselors. They may be held before or after school or during teacher conference periods.

Conferences can also be scheduled on early release days.

Provide Frequent Reports on Student Progress

- Progress notices every three weeks via Skyward.
- Report cards every six weeks via Skyward.
- Weekly progress updates available upon request.
- Extracurricular eligibility reports provided weekly.
- Positive messages sent home via postcards, email, or Skyward.

Provide Reasonable Access to Staff

Parents may contact teachers by email, phone, or voicemail to request conferences.

Opportunities for Parent Involvement

- Volunteer through the district's PIE (Partners in Education) Program.
- Visit classrooms with a 24-hour notice request and in accordance with established district protocol.

PARENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Parent will partner with WHS by assisting with the following:

- Monitor Attendance: Ensure your child is present and punctual.
- Ensure Homework Completion: Support your child in completing assignments.
- Engage in Educational Decisions: Participate in decisions regarding your child's education.
- Promote Extracurricular Activities: Encourage positive participation in extracurricular activities.
- Stay Informed: Regularly read notices from the school and respond as needed.
- Serve on Policy Advisory Groups: Participate in school advisory or policy groups to support decision-making.
- Monitor Sleep: Ensure your child gets adequate rest.
