

Suicide prevention and recovery

We all face challenges at different points in life, and suicide and substance use disorders affect many people's lives. This month's toolkit explores how compassion, conversation and connection can help nurture our own mental health and support loved ones who may be struggling.

Scan the QR code or visit optumwellbeing.com to explore this month's toolkit.

Optum