Name of student club/ organization	Faculty Sponsor	Faculty Sponsor Email	Mission/ purpose of organization	Meeting Location
121 Reach	Amanda Wile	wile@fultonschools.org	High School students going to the middle school to tutor students.	Taylor Road Middle School
21st Century Leaders	Anne-Marie Hanson	hansonam@fultonschools.org	21st Century Leaders is a club which utilizes donations from partners such as Coca-Cola, Georgia, Power, and Warner Bros, to offer several different leadership experiences to students all over Georgia. We would participate in and lead service projects, formal events, leadership forums, and more.	D106
Academic Team	Mathis	mathism1@fultonschools.org	To represent CHS and to compete in quiz bowl tournaments against other schools.	E120
Academic Team (AKA Quiz Bowl)	Michael Mathis	mathism1@fultonschools.org	This is a competitive team. We compete against other quiz bowl teams from other schools.	D120
AI Chatbot Building Club	Halle Guerra	Graceguerrah@fultonschools.org	The mission of the club is to help students gain real experience with how to automate daily life tasks with AI and use those skills to help other people.	E-117
Asian American Student Association	Anne-Marie Hanson	hansonam@fultonschools.org	Chattahoochee High School's Asian American Student Association strives to celebrate the diversity of Asian cultures while connecting students with their heritage and one another.	D106
Best Buddies	Brenda Anderson	andersonb2@fultonschools.org	The mission of Best Buddies is to foster one-to-one friendships between high school students students with and without intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) through inclusive activities and social-emotional learning tools that promote one-to-one friendship, acceptance, and interaction. Best Buddies helps to create an inclusive high school school culture for all students.	B109
Biology Olympiad	Matt Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	The mission of the USABO is to identify, inspire, empower, and support the next generation of life science leaders and to develop their international network.	H114
Biotechnology Club	Dr. Gerald Pollack	pollackgd@fultonschools.org	To promote the understanding of biotechnology principles and associated innovations.	H110
Black Student Union	Curtisa Johnson and Tammy Jones	johnsoncl@fultonschools.org and jonestr@fultonschools.org	"The Black Student Union's mission is to bring students together to celebrate Black culture, build community, and give students a space to share their voices and experiences."	G120
Boys Volleyball	Alexis Spencer	spencera@fultonschools.org	further the sport of boys volleyball	Gym
Broadcast and Media Club	Noah Latzsch	latzschn@fultonschools.org	Our mission is to empower students with hands-on broadcasting experience, developing skills both in front of the camera and behind the scenes. We are dedicated to sharing impactful stories from our school's community that inform, entertain, and inspire while fostering an environment that pushes the boundaries of creative media production.	B107
Cans for a Cause	Halle Guerra	graceguerrah@fultonschools.org	Cans for a Cause is a student led initiative that works to protect our Earth while helping those in need. We collect cans from local businesses, homes, and public spaces — recycling what many people neglect. Any proceeds collected are donated to Habitat for Humanity. Our goal is making a difference one can at a time.	E-117
Cartooning and Manga Art Club	Sean Taylor	taylors11@fultonschools.org	To foster an appreciation for and learning in the art of manga and cartooning.	F122
Chattahoochee Debate	Alice Haviland	havilanda@fultonschools.org	The mission of Chattahoochee Debate is to develop skilled advocates, ethical competitors, and future leaders through Public Forum debate. We combine rigorous preparation, evidence-based argumentation, and teamwork to help students excel at the highest levels of competition while building lifelong communication and critical-thinking skills.	E102
Chattahoochee Gardening/Greenhouse Club	Lori Buonamici	buonamicil@fultonschools.org	The mission of the Chattahoochee Gardening Club is to cultivate a passion for growing our own food and connecting with nature. We love learning and applying the knowledge through hands-on activities. Through connecting with nature, we strive to enhance our school's appearance, protect local ecosystems, and foster a lifelong appreciation for nature.	Chattahoochee Greenhouse
Chattahoochee HS Beta Club	Lin-Chiou Lee	leelc@fultonschools.org	The Chattahoochee High School Beta Club is dedicated to encouraging academic achievement, character, leadership, and service among students. Through volunteer work, school involvement, and leadership opportunities, Beta Club members strive to make a positive impact on both the school community and the world around them.	Cafeteria
Chemistry Olympiad	Jessica Ames	amesjp@fultonschools.org	To prepare for the Chemistry Olympiad Exam in March.	E122
Chess Club	Shannon Bontrager	bontragers1@fultonschools.org	To share love of chess	F 103
CHS Architecture Club	Alexandria Davies	daviesa@fultonschools.org	CHS Architecture Club explores architecture and design from past to present, where members will learn to develop skills to create innovative spaces.	CT-001

Civic Lens	Mr. Bancroft	bancrofk@fultonschools.org	We want to help more people learn about the law, their legal rights, and old cases that they might find interesting.	F126
Computer Science Honor Society	Ahmed Gathing	gathinga@fultonschools.org	Help the students that join our club to learn about different coding languages, computers, have them help in the community and tacher other people what we teach them.	G127
Crash course cooking	Katherine Mazeika	Mazeika@fultonschools.org	Mission statement: To teach students life skill in cooking and food preparations alongside giving back to the community through service hours.	G116
Digital Inclusion Club	Allison Poe	poea@fultonschools.org	Our mission is to empower older adults through digital education and inclusion, equipping them with the knowledge and confidence to recognize, avoid, and report online scams.	G122
Fellowship of Christian Athletes	Amy Balogh	balogh@fultonschools.org	Encourage athletes and non-athletes in their walk with God.	D-110
Fencing Club	Solange Leonardo	leonardos1@fultonschools.org	The mission of the Fencing Club is to promote the sport of fencing while developing students' discipline, sportsmanship, confidence, and physical fitness. The club provides members with opportunities to learn fencing techniques, build teamwork and leadership skills, compete in a safe and supportive environment, and foster respect for others through the values of honor, dedication, and perseverance.	E121
Food 4 Love	Amy Balogh	balogh@fultonschools.org	Encourage students who like to volunteer at Mission Agape.	D-110
FRENCH CLUB	Antoine Oriola	oriolaa@fultonschools.org	Promoting French Language and Culture at Chattahoochee	Mr. Oriola's classroom E116
Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA)	Allison Poe	poea@fultonschools.org	The organization aims to foster competent business leadership, strengthen student confidence, and promote understanding of the American business enterprise. Additional goals include encouraging community-improving projects, developing character and patriotism, promoting financial literacy, and aiding in career preparation.	G122
Gardening/Environmental Club	Lori Buonamici	buonamicil@fultonschools.org	The mission of the Chattahoochee Gardening Club is to cultivate a passion for growing our own food and connecting with nature. We love learning and applying the knowledge through hands-on activities. Through connecting with nature, we strive to enhance our school's appearance, protect local ecosystems, and foster a lifelong appreciation for nature.	Chattahoochee Greenhouse
Georgia Youth Justic Coalition	Jessica Ames	amesjp@fultonschools.org	Our mission is to build a resilient, youth-led movement that reaches every corner of our state and gives young Georgians a seat at the table in our democracy.	E122
Girls in Grace	Kinsey Schultz	schultzk@fultonschools.org	The purpose is to create a community where Christian girls can fellowship, discuss real-life challenges, study women of the Bible, and encourage one another to grow as women of God, sharpening each other as iron sharpens iron.	F102
Glamour Gals	Cara Novelli	novellic@fultonschools.org	Decrease senior isolation by connecting teen volunteers with elderly residents of care facilities through companionship and complementary beauty makeovers	F120 and local Senior Living Facility
Growing Beyond Earth	Jessica Cooper	cooperj2@fultonschools.org	This club is aligned with the Growing Beyond Earth program through Fairchild Tropical Botanical Garden. Students will conduct authentic research on plant growth, explore sustainable food production in space, and engage in the scientific method through hands-on experimentation and data collection.	H108
Growing Future Leaders	Nick Palermo	palermon@fultonschools.org	Mentoring 5th grade students about leadership skills like communication and problem solving through engaging activities.	H116
Hindu YUVA	Solange Leonardo	leonardos1@fultonschools.org	To educate students about Hindu culture and values while fostering leadership, community service, cultural awareness, and respectful dialogue through discussions, activities, and service projects.	E121
Hooch Comic Club	Sean Taylor	taylors11@fultonschools.org	A club where you can publish your own comics/comic strips as a newsletters (physical print or online)	F122
Hooch Dancing Club ("HCDC")	Nadia Ali	Aliahmady@fultonschools.org	The Hooch Dancing Club hopes to give students a chance to improve their dancing skills with their peers, create a supportive community, and perform at pep rallies and other events such as Mr. CHS or International Night.	E114
Hooch Student Service Corps (HSSC)	Paul Belongie	belongiep@fultonschools.org	To empower students to identify needs, create solutions, and make a measurable difference through service.	F101
HOSA	Layne Russell and Tangela McCorkle	mccorklet@fultonschools.org	Bridge the Gap between the classroom and Industry. Early exposure to networking and healthcare career related skills.	CT1
International Night event	Patricia Movilla-Leal	movillalealp@fultonschools.org	To celebrate out diversity and different cultures in Hooch!	G-120
Jewish Student Union	Ahmed Gathing	gathinga@fultonschools.org	Jewish Student Union is to help teens explore and celebrate the rich cultural heritage of the Jewish people.	G125
Junior Classical League	Amy Venn	venna@fultonschools.org	The Junior Classical League (JCL) is a student organization dedicated to promoting the study and appreciation of the Latin language, literature, history, and culture of ancient Rome and Greece. Through academic competitions, leadership opportunities, service projects, social events, and conventions, JCL members explore the enduring influence of the classical world on modern society.	E111

Knitted Knockers	Matt Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	We believe every woman deserves access to this simple gift of comfort and dignity. The need is greater than any one group can meet alone — but when individuals and communities each care for the survivors in their own counties, together we can reach every woman who needs us. Our mission is connecting volunteer knitters (and crocheters) with breast cancer survivors to provide free knitted knockers. We do this by inspiring and equipping volunteers to make them. Knittedknockers.org has free patterns and videos on how to make great knitted knockers. The patterns have been downloaded over 2 million times.	H114
Korean Cultural Club (KCC)	MJ Kang	kangm@fultonschools.org	To promote a deeper understanding and appreciation of traditional and modern Korean culture, language, and performing arts while celebrating the diversity of the Chattahoochee High School community.	Black Box
Linguistics Club	Joshua Hood	hoodj2@fultonschools.org	Introduce students to linguistic concepts and analysis, and prepare them for participation in the annual North American Computational Linguistics Olympiad.	G111
LitArt Club	Diana Eidson	eidsonh@fultonschools.org	We are an inclusive community of artists practicing in various media. LitArt enables everyone with a passion for the arts to use their talents and share their creativity with others.	E103
Math Team	Joshua Hood	hoodj2@fultonschools.org	To promote interest in mathematics by weekly meetings and participation in competitions, both at the school and at various schools and universities.	G111
Med Life	Jessica Cooper	cooperj2@fultonschools.org	The club is focused on exploring different careers in the medical field and giving students opportunities to learn more about healthcare through activities, discussions, and other experiences such as service trips.	H108
MedReach	Halle Guerra	graceguerrah@fultonschool.org	The mission purpose of our club is to offer volunteer opportunities for high school students in medical settings as well as supporting medical organizations by organizing events at nursing homes, hosting fundraisers/drives, and visiting clinics.	E-117
MENA Culture Club	Matthew Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	To bring awareness of Middle Eastern and North African culture to the Chattahoochee community. The club will also serve as a place for students whose families originated in the region to find each other for goodwill and support.	H114
Mindful Wellness Club	Rachelle Johnston	JohnstonR@fultonschools.org	To spread awareness about the importance of mental health.	G114
Mock Trial Team	Diana Eidson	eidsonh@fultonschools.org	We meet at least once a week to prepare arguments for a legal trial competition and perform in events beginning in February.	E103
Model United Nations	Amy Billings	billingsa1@fultonschools.org	To advance understanding of the UN and contemporary global issues through quality educational programs that emphasize collaboration and cooperative conflict resolution and prepare participants for active global citizenship. We envision a world comprised of civically engaged people who strive for peaceful, multilateral conflict resolution and equitable, sustainable human development.	F118
Mu Alpha Theta	Tiffany Abel	abelt@fultonschools.org	Mu Alpha Theta is a math national honor society with the purpose of promoting scholarship in, enjoyment of, and understanding of mathematics among students.	G118
Muslim Student Association	Matt Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	Benefit and uplift Muslim community in Chattahoochee and Johns Creek. Through education, fundraisers, involvement with organizations and other MSAs, etc.	H114
National Art Honor Society	Kara Rice	ricek1@fultonschools.org	to inspire, recognize, and support high school and middle school students who show outstanding ability and interest in art, helping them achieve high standards in scholarship, character, and service while bringing visual arts education to their schools and communities.	A110/A112
National English Honors Society	Kimberly Cooney/ Anne Hanson	cooney@fultonschools.org; hansonam@fultonschools.org	To recognize high achieving English students and promote the awareness of literature and language through the school and larger community.	F123
National Honors Society	Amanda Wile	wile@fultonschools.org	The purpose of the National Honor Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service, promote leadership, and develop character in students of secondary schools.	G125
National Student Research Institution (NSRI)	Amanda Wile	wile@fultonschools.org	Collaborating with University Labs & 34 independent PhD to make research approachable for all high school students	Online / Zoom
National Tutoring Honor Society	Anne-Marie Hanson	hansonam@fultonschools.org	National Tutoring Honor Society (NTHS) is dedicated to providing free tutoring to middle and high school students through online platforms. Our goal is to ensure that every student to have equal access to academic support services like tutoring and college counseling. Our club will focus on tutoring through two main platforms: UPchieve and Schoolhouse.	D106
Operation Smile	Matt Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	The purpose of Operation Smile is to spread awareness about cleft lips and cleft palates, as well as to raise funds to provide medical support to underprivileged children that suffer from these conditions. The mission statement is “Empowering youth globally through advocacy, education, leadership, and service”	H114
Pathways2Life Club	Alicia McClung	mcclunga1@fultonschools.org	The purpose of the Pathways2Life Club is to bring awareness, erase stigma relating to mental health and plan healthy prevention activities for the student body.	Counseling Office Flex Room
Physics Olympiad	Ioana Beldeanu	beldeanui@fultonschools.org	We will prepare for F=ma and AP Physics exams with the goal that we will continue to have multiple semi-finalists representing Chattahoochee at the National Physics Olympiad level.	H109
Red Cross Club	Taylor Slack	slackt@fultonschools.org	The Red Cross Club will give students many opportunities to help our school/community through service projects related to health and safety. Some activities could include blood drive support, fundraising, and other basic but helpful volunteer projects. For example, an activity could include making handmade cards for people in hospitals and sending them.	F107

Riddle Club	Kelsey Papineau Moss	papineauk@fultonschools.org	To provide a fun and collaborative environment where students strengthen their critical thinking, creativity, and problem-solving skills through riddles, logic puzzles, and other brain challenges.	F218
Sanskrit Club	Shannon Bontrager	bontragers1@fultonschools.org	to spread awareness of Sanskrit written language	F 103
Science National Honor Society	Matt Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	The goals of this club are: To inspire a new group of young thinkers in the scientific world through community service. Science National Honor Society aims to increase scientific education at Chattahoochee High School through student tutoring in all science subjects and intends to recognize students of high achievement in the science subject area.	H114
Science Olympiad Team	Matt Mihordea	mihordea@fultonschools.org	Academic competition team	G125
Société Honoraire de Français (SHF), by the American Association of Teachers of French (AATF)	Antoine Oriola	oriolaa@fultonschools.org	The Société Honoraire de Français (SHF) is the National French Honor Society for high school students. Our local high school chapter (#SHF Charter Number SHF2413), provides a vehicle to focus activities on French language and Francophone literature and cultures, mentoring French learners and to encourage participation in contest or scholarship opportunities. In addition, students can acquire leadership skills by serving as officers, directing the initiation ceremony, or leading other chapter events.	Mr. Oriola's classroom E116
Spanish Club	Halle Guerra	graceguerrah@fultonschools.og	We strive to understand Hispanic culture, and celebrate it throughout the school year as we learn more about the culture through various activities.	E-117
Spanish National Honor Society (SNHS)	Nadia Ali	Aliahmady@fultonschools.org	The mission is to recognize high school achievement in Spanish and to promote interest in Hispanic studies. Its mission emphasizes both academic excellence and cultural engagement, providing students with opportunities to develop language skills while exploring the traditions, history, and contributions of Spanish speaking communities.	E-114
Sports Medicine Club	Tangela McCorkle	mccorklet@fultonschools.org	Our mission of the sports medicine club is to introduce and educate students on the world of sports medicine. In addition to learning, the students will get to participate in hands on activities to gain experience of different fields in sports medicine.	CT-1
STEM 4 Special Students (S4S)	Matt Sharp	sharpmb@fultonschools.org	This club's mission is to introduce STEM to special needs kids in a creative and fun way by understanding their way of learning. We want to give an opportunity to them to explore STEM and to increase their potential in these fields. This will be implemented through a series of workshops consisting of lessons and activities developed and taught by the club members.	H114
Student Leadership North	Amanda Wile	wile@fultonschools.org	Leadership training for students	off campus
Student Sustainability Initiative	Gerald Pollack	pollackgd@fultonschools.org	To educate students on environmental issues and provide opportunities to promote environmental health	H110
The Entrepreneurship Club	Anne-Marie Hanson	hansonam@fultonschools.org	promote entrepreneurship and enter competitions	D106
Thespian Troupe	Maria Miller	millerm17@fultonschools.org	To honor student achievement in the theatre arts, support theatre education, and encourage excellence.	Black Box Theatre
Thrive2Gethr	Rachelle Johnston	JohnstonR@fultonschools.org	Fighting food insecurity, reducing waste, and supporting local communities	G114
TSA	Michael Savino	savinom@fultonschools.org	Student Technology Association, a nationally recognized organization based in technology competitions.	Engineering
Womens Empowerment Club	Shannon O'Leary	olearys@fultonschools.org	Women's Empowerment Club strives to build a better world for girls of all backgrounds, featuring events to raise charity for women by women, activities for building community, and a cultural and historical exploration of what it is to be an influential woman.	G102
Young Democrats Club	Amy Billings	billingsa1@fultonschools.org	To engage students in the political process through a discussion of policies (not people). A primary goal is increasing future voter turnout from an informed citizenry. The club also promotes leadership development.	F118