

CREDIT FLEXIBILITY - Student Tasks & Processes

Credit Flexibility is a student driven process. Students are responsible for successfully completing all steps of the flow chart to earn credit.

Pick up Credit Flexibility Information Packet and Interest form and Identify desired credit flex course work, rationale and possible academic support teacher.

Complete Interest Form and submit to counselor by specified deadline.

Meet with counselor to consult and discuss benefits, risks, options, suitability, expectations, impact on graduation requirements, athletic eligibility, etc.

If after consultation, student wishes to pursue Credit Flex student may meet with academic support teacher and counselor for help with application and individual proposal development.

Complete application and paperwork and obtain all required signatures.
ATHLETES: Understand NCAA/OHSSA eligibility requirements. Complete and submit Athletic Waiver

Submit completed application to the counselor by the deadline.

Receive approval and begin coursework OR
Make requested revisions and resubmit application

Meet with academic support teacher and counselor before the drop deadline, and check in at least quarterly or as mutually agreed by the student, Academic Support Teacher and counselor.

Document meetings and check in and continue coursework.

Complete work and schedule exam/presentation by the deadline.

Take exam/complete exam and demonstration expectations/present individual proposal.

Receive feedback. Grade and credit awarded.