What is Bobcat Hour?

1 Hour for everyone to eat lunch, attend tutorials, participate in clubs, and relax with friends.

Students choose where they go and what they do for the hour unless they are pulled for other reasons.

Teachers will assign students for tutorials when students are failing or far behind in work.

Designated day (Wednesday) to make up missed test

Structure

Bobcat Hour is divided into two blocks (A & B). During that time, teachers have one block for lunch and the other block for duty, tutorials, or a club.

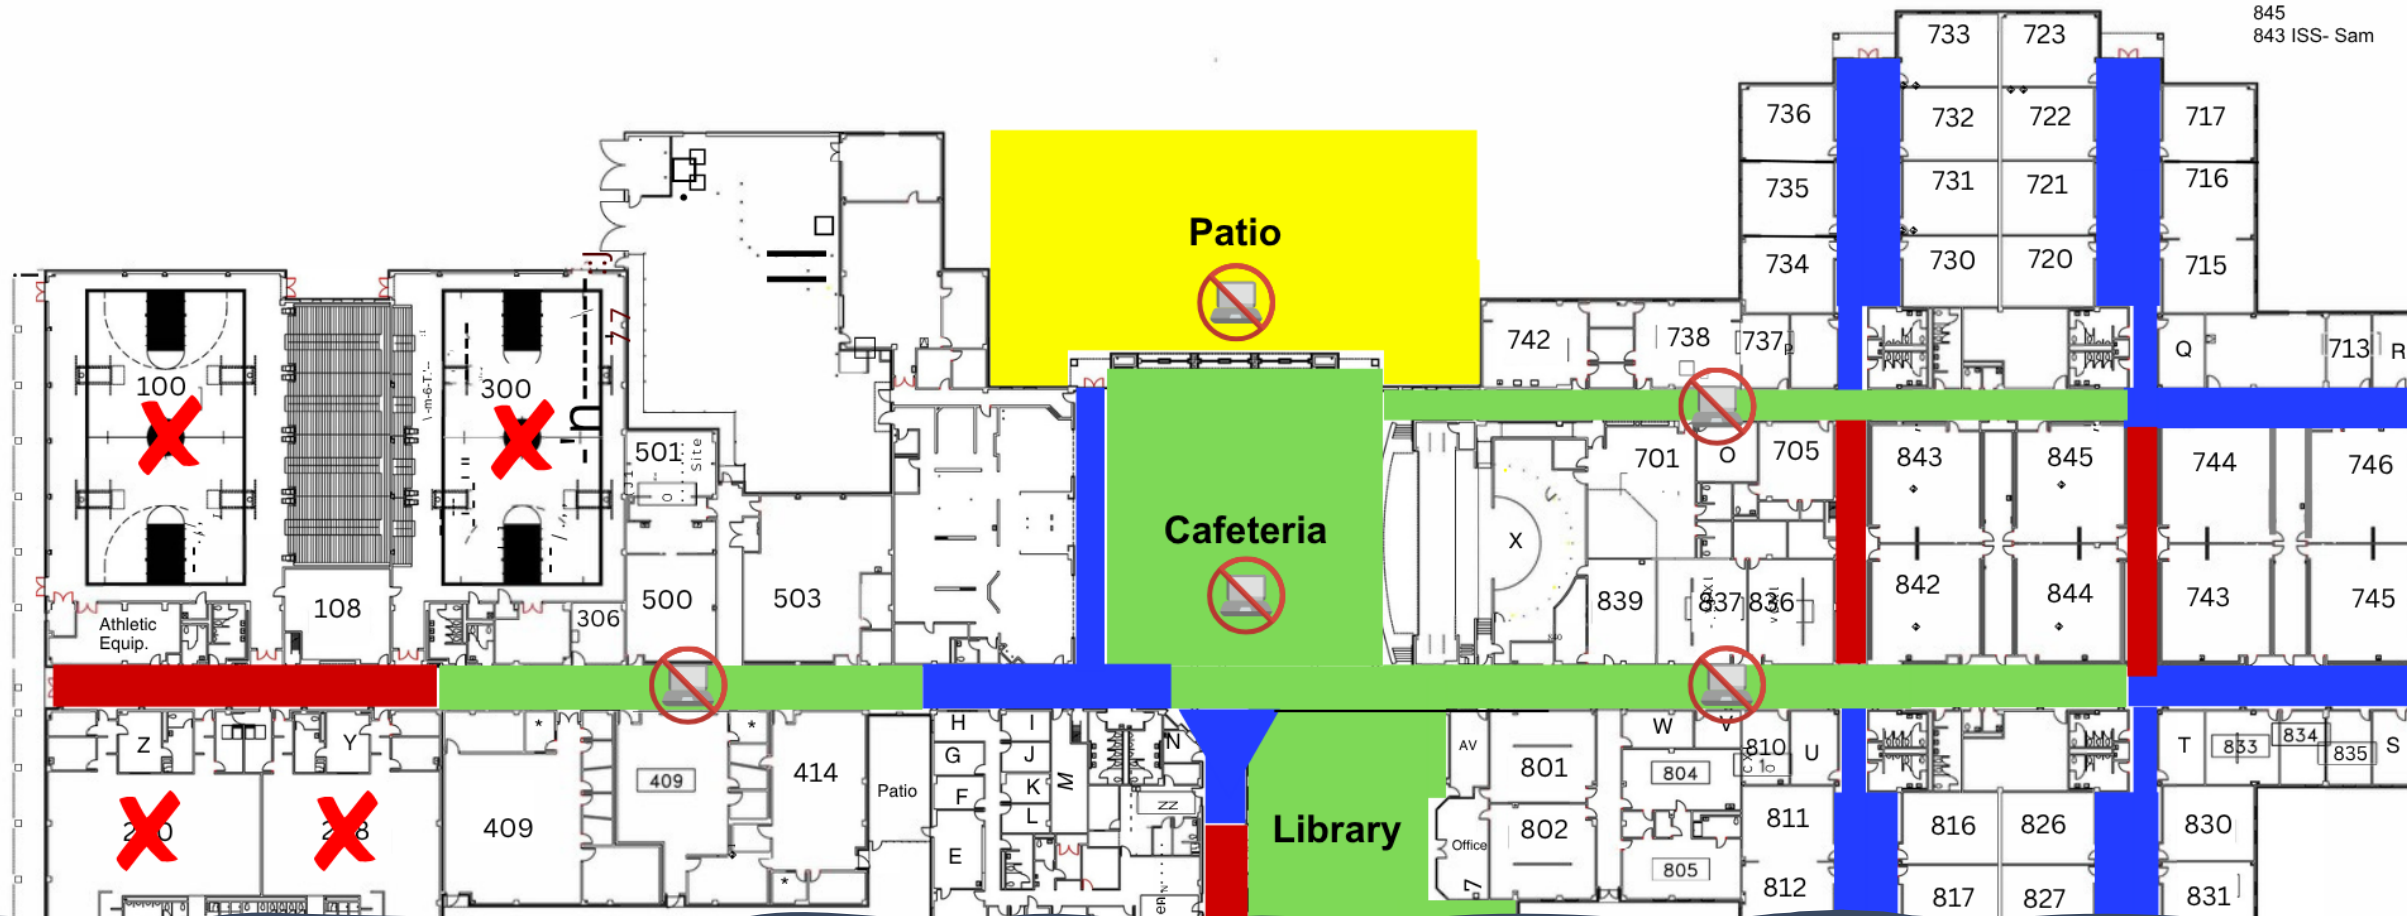

The school is divided into color-coded zones that let students know where they are allowed to be and how they are expected to act in each area.

Green

Students can eat and gather in groups.

Students can talk at normal volumes.

Running not allowed.

Physical horseplay not allowed.

Students should clean up all trash and spills around them, whether theirs or not.

Blue

Blue zones are for walking through on the way to somewhere else.

There is no gathering or eating in blue zones.

Students should remain quiet in blue zones, especially in the pods.

Students waiting for the restroom may wait quietly.

There is no “I am waiting for/with my friend” in blue zones.

Red

Students are not allowed in red zones under any circumstances.

Entering a red zone for any reason will result in multiple days of D-Hall without any exceptions or discussions.

Red zones will be clearly marked with signs.

WHAT IS NEW

 House Points awarded for attending tutorials and clubs

 You can also earn points for your House by being a part of the Clean Up Crew and/or Gardening Club

 NO LAPTOPS DURING BOBCAT HOUR ---ONLY ALLOWED in CLASSROOM or Library

 Cross Hallways are now RED ZONE

 Starting 2nd Term, Patio Access will be for 1st and 2nd place students from our House Day on Oct. 8th

ADVANTAGES

Bobcat Hour

Rules & Consequences

With great power comes great responsibility.

No LAPTOPS

Unless it's in a classroom where a teacher allows it.

No RUNNING

No ROAMING

Find a WALL: Do not sit in middle of hallway

Quiet Pods

We stay quiet in the pods.

Walking to/from a tutorial or club?
Walk quietly.

Waiting for the restroom? Wait quietly.

Eating in a hall by the pods? Be nice and keep your voice down or you will be asked to go to the cafeteria or earn Bobcat Hour
Detention

DO NOT:

Going to say 'hi' to teachers for fun. (Visit them during clubs or at their duty stations.)

Escorting friends to tutorials or clubs. (If you're not in that club or tutorial, stay away.)

Talking outside of the club or tutorial. (Silent Pods!)

DO NOT:

Get friends out of tutorials or clubs to do something else. (If you're not in that club or tutorial, stay away.)

Walking around “looking for” people. (You don't need to find them. Hang out in a green zone and wait.)

Leaving your trash behind. (Littering is a Bobcat Hour violation. Failure to obey staff is a Bobcat Hour violation.)

Bobcat Hour D-Hall

D-Hall is held in the
ISS room(843)

Students report immediately from 4th period without any delay. Tardiness will result in additional days in D-Hall.

Students get lunch in D-
Hall as a group, supervised by D-Hall monitor.

There are no restroom breaks during D-Hall.

Bobcat Hour D-Hall

Students are not allowed laptops during D-Hall.

Repeated assignments to D-Hall will result in ISS.

Students will report immediately to the ISS Room.

Failure to comply with D-Hall rules results in extra days of D-Hall.

Lunch Detention n

Lunch detention students must report immediately after 4th period; tardiness brings additional consequences.

Lunch detention students get lunch with the D-Hall group.

Lunch detentions are only 1 day.

Student Notification

- CHECK FLEX EVERYDAY
@ 12:09 BELL
- NO EXCUSES

Tips for Success

- If you aren't in control of yourself or your friends, stay in the green zones as you learn the flow.
- Realize that the staff is going to report all students for violations, even those they get along with well.
- Do not argue when told what to do; comply immediately.
- Get to/from tutorials and clubs quickly and quietly.
- Find a home base for you and your friends in a green area. (No aimless wandering and roaming.)

Tips for Success

Use the cafeteria restroom if you're with a loud group.

Bring lunch the first few days if you're worried about the timing of the cafeteria lines.

Look at your favorite teachers' duty stations and days to catch up with them and socialize with them. (NOT their classrooms.)

Clean up all trash you see and obey when asked, whether it is yours or not.

Be open-minded, be relaxed, be respectful, be mature, and be ready to use this opportunity to its full potential.

Clean up all trash

(even if it isn't yours)

Honor the privilege
you are being offered.

Library Expectations

No food or drinks at the computer tables, on couches, or in the makerspace.

Makerspace area is for those activities only – activities will be placed out based on a schedule.

Eating is only allowed at the tables by the bookshelves – make sure you pick up your trash and clean your area when you leave.

Library Expectations

You are still allowed to check out books during this time.

Don't pull books off the shelf unless you are checking them out.

There is no running or yelling in the library – you may talk and socialized during this time.
