NEED HELP PAYING FOR BROOKFIELD PARKS & RECREATION PROGRAMS?

Financial Assistance Is Available

The Brookfield Parks & Recreation Foundation believes cost shouldn't stand in the way of individuals and families participating in programs that help them learn, grow, and stay active. If you need help covering the cost of eligible Brookfield Parks & Recreation programs, assistance is available.

Qualifying families may receive financial assistance covering up to 50% of eligible program fees.

Scholarship assistance is available for:

- Before & After School CARE (S.T.A.R.S)
- Summer Camps
- Sports Leagues
- Dance & Fitness Programs
- Arts, STEM & Enrichment Classes
- Special Interest Programs
- And many other Brookfield Parks & Recreation activities

You may be eligible if:

✓ Your child(ren) qualifies for free or reduced lunch
✓ You or your family are eligible for state and/or federal assistance programs
✓ You or your family meet eligible household income levels

Not sure if you qualify? We encourage you to apply. Applying is simple, confidential, and there's no obligation.

READY TO APPLY?

Email Brookfield Parks & Recreation Director, Matthew Odom at modom@brookfieldil.gov to request a financial assistance application.
All inquiries and applications are handled confidentially.
