ELA Enrichment Choice Board

Speaking & Listening	Reading	Writing	Language
Pitch your independent reading book in a commercial style to convince others to "read it."	Read your independent reading book.	In a Google doc, create a social media post as if you were a character from your reading. Include hashtags, emojis, and captions that match the character's personality or situation.	Create a visual poem or word art based on a theme, character, or scene from a text.
Choose a character decision or theme and debate for 3–5 minutes per side, using evidence from the text.	Read an article from ADD A WEBSITE HERE and write about your key takeaways.	Pick a scene from the current class text and create a short script or storyboard for a movie trailer.	Take a paragraph from your own writing and improve sentence variety, word choice, and punctuation. Include both versions in your submitted work.
Pick 2-3 songs that represent a character, theme, or scene. Present your playlist and explain your reasoning.	Pick a short story or poem (any other short text) from the enrichment bin and write about your key takeaways.	Write a letter giving advice to a character or asking the author questions about the story.	Pick 5 unfamiliar words from your reading. Define them, give synonyms/antonyms, draw them, and write sentences using them.

ELA Enrichment Choice Board

Select a passage and practice reading it aloud with expression, tone, and pacing. Present to a partner or record yourself.	Pick a book from the enrichment bin and write about your key takeaways.	Write a poem from the viewpoint of a character, focusing on their feelings or perspective.	Play the weekly games linked below: