LEAD
Summit

With over 30 years in education, JOY KELLY is a nationally recognized speaker, leader, and advocate for positive school culture. Named Iowa Associate Principal of the Year and co-author of Handle with Care: Managing Difficult School Situations with Dignity and Respect, Joy uses practical strategies, storytelling, and authentic relationship-building to help educators navigate challenges with courage, clarity, and compassion. She partners with leaders to strengthen school culture, build trust, and create environments where educators thrive and students succeed.
