I hope you have the best summer break! While I'm certainly excited to teach you in September, enjoy this special time to relax, recharge, and play with family and friends. Don't forget to also enjoy a summer of traveling through the pages of a picture book. My summer reading list is growing longer each day. My son, Reece, and daughter, Claire, love ending their day with snuggles and stories with mommy. I have so many wonderful books I can't wait to share with you in the classroom. We're going to have a fantastic year together!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Dugan
