A journey from Buenos Aires to Iguazu

Tentative dates:
June 5– 19, 2026

Who?

9th – 11th grade students.
Priority to Spanish students.

Cost $6,600

Paraná: Activities with Argentine teenagers from a partner school to experience their everyday life in and outside of school and build friendships. Community involvement. Day at a local farm, and excursions around the area.

Puerto Iguazu: Exploration of Iguazu Falls, one of the Seven Modern Wonders of the World. Breathtaking scenery, unique flora and fauna in a subtropical jungle. Visit to a yerba mate plantation and a local indigenous community.

Buenos Aires: Deep exploration of the city experiencing traditional food, tango, and the influence of immigration in today's society. Day spent at River Plate soccer stadium and school, interacting with the students to immerse in Argentina's passion for fútbol.

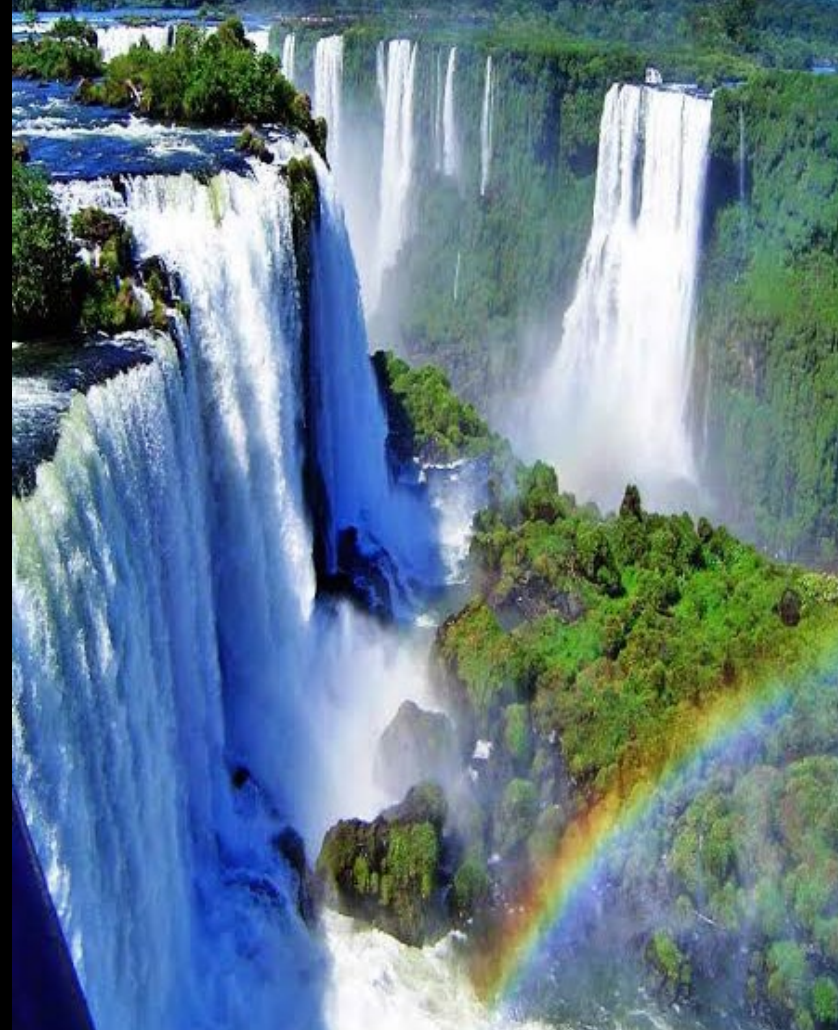

Part 1

People-to-people connections that foster language and cultural immersion

Part 2:
Fútbol, tango, historic charm, and modern culture
in the place where it all started: Buenos Aires

Part 3

Iguazú Falls: A majestic natural wonder in the heart of indigenous heritage and Argentina's yerba mate region.
