

Jen Smith
Food Service Director

Born and raised in a regional community, Jen has spent many years building experience in the industry. Their background spans multiple sectors and areas of expertise, providing a broad perspective and diverse skill set. “[Professional excellence] is not just about mastering the technical aspects of a role. More importantly, it is about combining those skills with strategic thinking and business insight to create meaningful impact and long-term success.”

Favorite food/service memory?

“

The best part of student nutrition is knowing that every meal served is an opportunity to nourish students, build positive connections, and create memorable experiences.

”

What does hospitality mean to you?

- Accommodation
- Attention to Detail
- Connection

MEET OUR TEAM

Powering potential.™