A Message From Mr. Gloudemans

Dear Families,

Welcome to another exciting school year! We are thrilled to have your child as part of our school community and look forward to the learning, growth, and success that this year will bring.

We believe that a strong partnership between home and school is one of the most important factors in a student's success. When families and educators work together, students benefit both academically and socially. Thank you for the trust you place in us, and we look forward to working alongside you throughout the year

If you need another copy, please reach out to your child's teacher or the school office, and we will be happy to provide one. Here is an example of the document:

We are excited to use the information you share to help guide our work with your child. We also want to keep you informed about your child's growth and progress. Throughout the year, we will provide updates on progress at least two times during parent-teacher conferences.
