A Touch of Class

Senior Editor: Lisa Rasmussen
Underclassman Editor: Constance Rood
Assistant-Editor: Christal White
Editor-N-Chief: Lea` Porter

This years theme, 'A Touch of Class', was inspired by classical art and architecture. It is also a representation of each individual class and their own unique styles, which were revealed this year at Newport High School. The individualistic cohesiveness and collective power of the student body were extremely apparent this year. This year was, beyond a doubt, simply classic. It will be a year that no one will forget.

Tribute

We are trying to maintain a list of all former students of NHS who have served in the United States Armed Forces. We know that our list is very incomplete and ask your assistance in bringing it up to date. This is a project that we would like to see grow in the future and have these names placed in a prominent site. Contact Randy Wyrobek or Cathy Rawley at 447-2481.

The students and staff of NHS would like to take the time to pay tribute to those former students and staff w have served our community and our country so nobely times of need. They are to saluted for their generous service to perpetuating the freedoms and rights each o us enjoy as we pursue our education and look forwar to our hopes for the future.

Dedication

This year the student body and faculty of Newport High School lost one of its own. A dedicated and highly respected educator, Mrs. Henry was always smiling. Her smile would light up the hall every day, no matter what was going on. She was a woman who loved what she did. For all of the lives and hearts that she touched, she will truly be missed.

In Mrs. Henry's memory the staff and administration of NHS generously contributed to a one-time scholarship for a Senior graduating this year. That individual was carefully selected from many applicants to be a significant recipient of the same values and ethics that Mrs. Henry exhibited in her everyday existence. The scholarship went to Ms. Lea' Porter.

Sandy Henry

In Loving Memory

Our school has been pretty quiet
Over these past few days
Mourning the loss of a wonderful teacher
Who was amazing in so many ways

Let me take this chance to say
That I didn't get to really know
Exactly who Mrs. Henry was
And what she didn't show

She always wore a smile
Barely ever showed a frown
She was thoughtful and caring
And never seemed to be down

The woman known as Mrs. Henry
Was as caring as could be
And I was very blessed
To have her be friends with me.

Sarah Thomas

May her memory never be forgotten, and may her teachings live on forever.

This year's ASB worked very hard to make a difference. They spent a lot of time with Mr. Stahl and myself going over the policies of the school and how they could be improved for student's safety and understanding. They were a great bunch of kids to work with. I'll miss them.

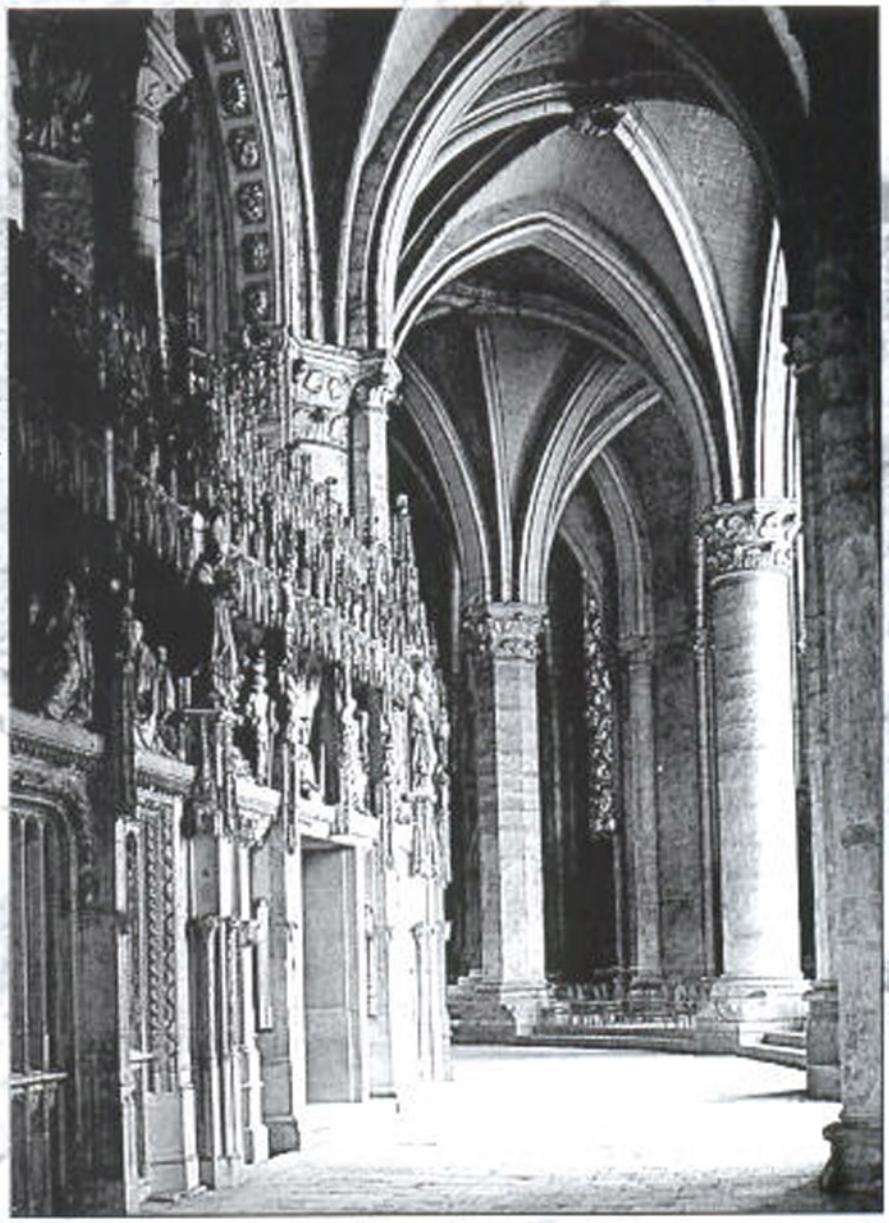

Branden Peck kept a close eye on all of the finances this year, and did a very good job at it.

Wynona Chantry was in charge of the Student Court this past year.

Student Life

LaTisha Calvin and Annie Womack took an active part in the dress up days during Homecoming Week.

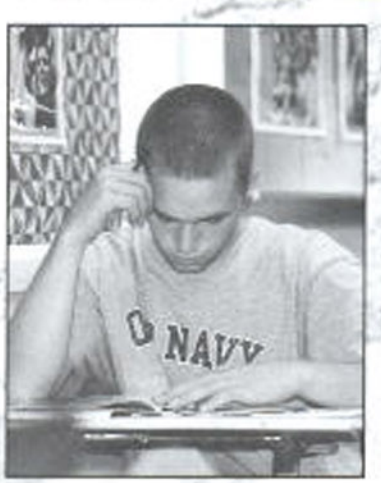

Josh Richter appears to be listening to something far off on the other side of the field.

David Hogman, just being himself.

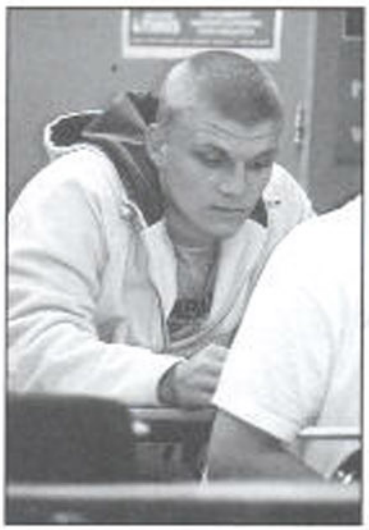

Tiffany Brown takes time from her reading to check out the situation.

Chris Markel appears to be wrapped up in the article that he is reading in his English Class.

Joel Hoisington came as his conception of the perfect Super Hero during dress up day.

Levi Carey seems to have found an article that he can relate to during this reading portion of his English Class.

Cara McClinton and Katie Pifer 'Hum it up' at a football game as they await the next play to begin.

Student Life

Zach Laurich presented his version of the Scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz during Homecoming Week.

Teri Ratcliff rockin' out to the music at the Homecoming Dance.

Randy Nunez gives Coby Hargrove a push during the Wagon Parade at Stratton Elementary.

Vasilka Womack displays a ready and winning smile for everyone.

Lori Rusbo and Samantha Hilleman also took part in the Wagon Parade.

Constance Rood works hard at being a good student, as we see here in her math class.

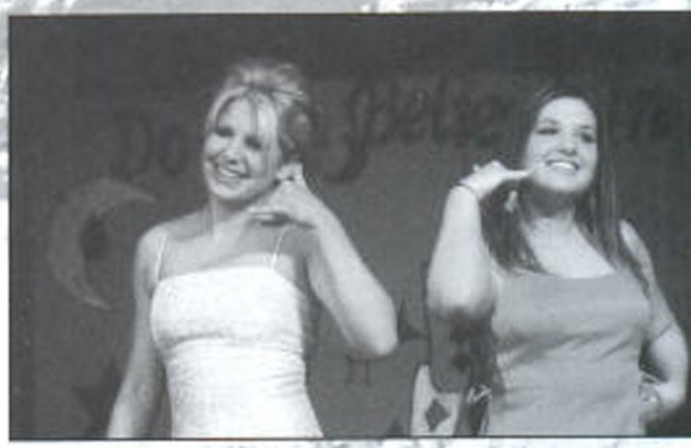

Kassie Resnick and Amee Walden, our outgoing Alternate and Jr. Miss respectfully, welcome everyone to the program at the beginning of the evening.

Alicia Barranco and Sharon Weber display a variety of surprise in the poise rendition of the evening.

Sharon Weber, Little Red Riding Hood pauses during her recitation to reflect on the situation.

Kirsten Scribner and Vanessa Toner appear to be answering the same call at the same time.

Ailene Johnson shows us why she is the Prima Ballerina of the evening.

Dezeray Schaaf gives the crowd a big wave as she crosses the stage.

Kirsten Scribner, Vanessa Toner, Sharon Weber, Ailene Johnson, Alicia Barranco and Dezeray Schaaf line up for a motion effect at the end of the Fitness Routine.

Kirsten Scribner looks beautiful in her gown and curls.

Alicia Barranco smiles for the judges and the audience during the fitness portion of the program.

Ailene Johnson seems more th happy to make her point duri poise segment of the evening.

Jr. Miss

Our New Royalty, Ailene Johnson (Alternate) and Alicia Barranco (Jr. Miss) pose for photographs at the end of the evening.

Vanessa Toner strikes a very familiar pose in her patriotic number, featuring her tap-dancing skills.

Sharon Weber provides the crowd with a big, genuine smile.

Dezaray Schaaf performs "Hero" for her intertainment portion of the competition.

Kirsten Scribner in a toe-stompin rendition of "Me and My Tractor."

Vanessa Toner assumes a posture of 'a damsel in distress' during the poise presentation.

"Do You Believe In Magic", the theme for the evening is framed by the contestants during a musical number for our enjoyment.

Our Jr. Miss Contestants : Kirsten Scribner, Vanessa Toner, Sharon Weber, Ailene Johnson, Alicia Barranco and Dezaray Schaaf.

Bobby Maddy and Renee Griffus take a break from the dance floor.

Bryce Howe and Jenny Schulz make their way to the dance floor.

Sarah Buckley and Dustin Kisner give the camera a glance as they dance to a slow song.

Angie Hollowell strikes a pretty pose.

Mrs. Ralston gets with the program during Prom night.

Haley Nichols appears to be having the time of her life.

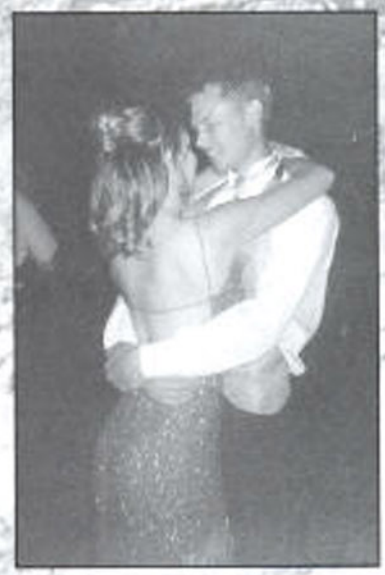

Junior Prom

Our Prom Royalty for 2003 was Queen Kara Bailey and King Caleb Andrea.

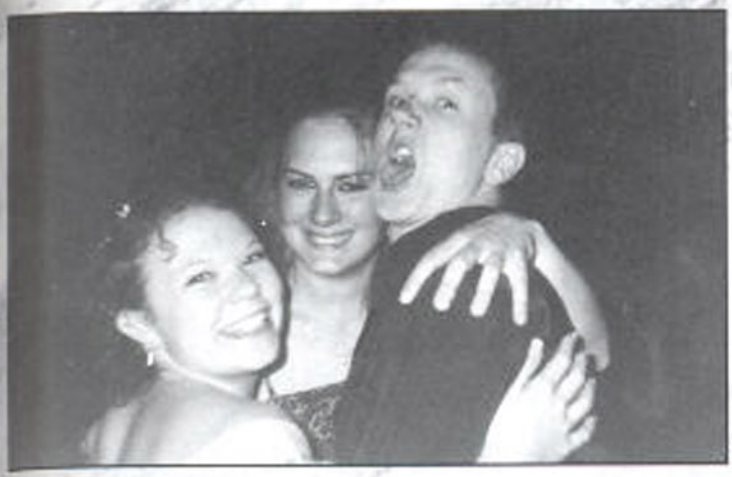

Brandon Peck seems more than pleased with his date for the evening, Amy Hunt.

Amanda Swoboda, a pretty little thing, gets into the rhythm of a more up to tempo number.

Jamie Patterson and J.T. Taylor refuse to allow Lyndsey Odell to come between them at the dance.

Sage Spiegel and JordAnn Byrd share a touching moment during another slow dance.

Krissy Hamberg, Amanda Paige, Tiffany Brown, Paty Lomeli, Christina Williams and Amanda Hamberg get ready to leave for the prom.

Foreign Exchange

Paty Lomeli makes a pretty picture prior to leaving for the prom.

Jordy Byrd and Paty seem to be the best of friends as they perform at a Winter Concert.

Paty at her first communion.

Paty, in the cafeteria, talking to her friend, Tobi Sanders.

Paty, Christina and Antonio, her grandparents.

A TOUCH of Class

Senior Division

Sarah Johnson takes time out to assist Justin Burch with his attire at the beginning of the evening.

Chris Connely seems to be following Sammantha Starnes as well as the music at the dance.

Randy Nunez takes time to reflect on his appearance for the dance.

Myles Melendez just seems to be chuggin along.

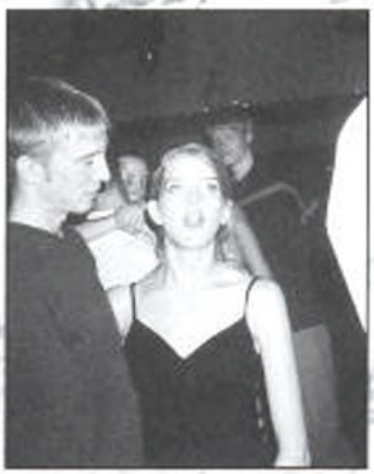

One lady in red, JordAnn Byrd, sings along with the song as she takes part in the evening festivities.

Joe Wilkison and Tobi Sanders seem to be looking at two different types of stars while enjoying the evening.

Jessica Winje, just having fun on the dance floor.

Jessica Armour, wide-eyed and innocent, yet deep into the music.

Melanie McDonald and Katie Schlotthauer take time to catch a few snacks with Mr. Frederick.

Senior Ball

Somcone must have scheduled the dance on a full moon if we judge by the actions of Nick Stofer and Matt McFall.

A tender moment is shared between Ryan Bennett and Kalina Berry as they observe the festivities.

Vasilka Womack dances the night away as she emulates her favorite celebrity.

Craig Monk and Tygra Martin share a night to remember.

Chad Evans is less camera inclined than his date, Kassie Remick.

Sarah Buckley, into the music and gettin' her groove on.

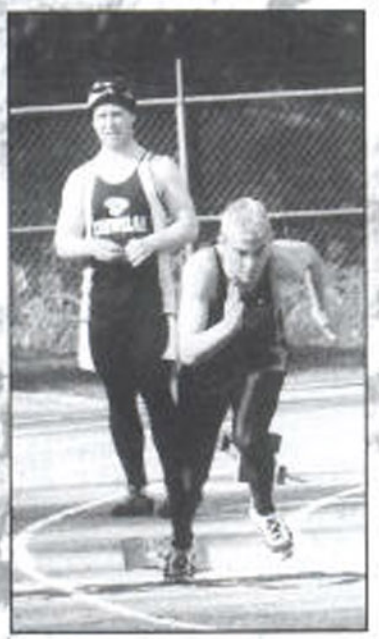

Jessica Williams and Paul Lewis share smiles and a special moment.

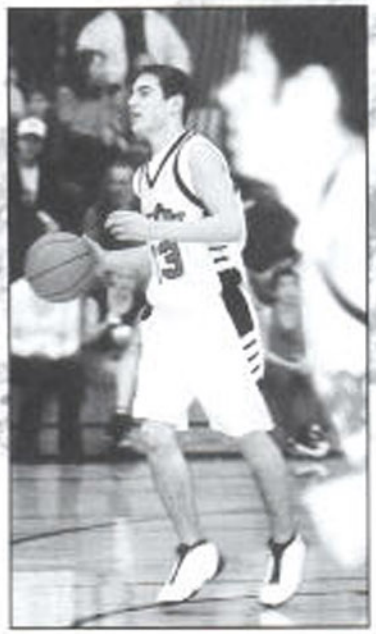

Grizzly-Grizzliette

Cody Johnson, a three sport athlete for all four years at Newport was the Coaches' choice for Grizzly of the Year.

Kassie Remick was chosen as our Grizzliette of the Year by Newport High School Coaches this year.

Kassie Remick chipped herself all the way to a fantastic finish at the State Meet this year.

Cody Johnson, our leading playmaker this season brings the ball down the floor.

Cody Johnson tied the State Record for Kickoff Returns for Touchdowns this year. Other teams respected his ability so much that he was not kicked to in the last three games.

Kassie Remick was the floor general for the Girls' Team this year, a position she played well.

This season Cody Johnson ran track for the first time, qualifiing for State in more than one event.

Physics

(Mr. Edmonds took the group to its first Competition this year and they did very well.)

Rachel Hull, Brandon Peck and Cody Hargrove display a variety of confidence as they enter the area for the competition, non-plussed, friendly and determined respectfully.

Amee Walden pauses, with her First Place Trophy Winner, to pose for a victory photograph.

Justin Birch and Rachel Hull take a water ride with some competitors from other schools.

I had a great time subbing for Mrs. Pierce this year, especially with the Physics class. The kids were hard working and intelligent. They stole the show at the Physic's Competition at Silverwood, winning every event that we entered.

Duncan Earls makes some last second adjustments to his entry.

Shelley Shaver and Vanessa Toner take some time out from the competition to enjoy one of the rides at Silverwood.

Cody Hargrove readies his machine for its final test as Amee Walden looks on, and Shelley Shaver works on her machine as well in the background.

Members attending were : Wynona Chantry, Duncan Earls, Renee Griffus, Cody Hargrove, Collin Masters, Brandon Peck, Kassie Remick, Shelley Shaver, Vanessa Toner, Amee Walden, Rachel Hull and Lisa Rasmussen.
