APPEAL OFFICER ROLE ON TITLE IX TEAM

Who's on the Title IX Team?

1. Title IX Coordinator, per § 106.8(a)
 2. Investigator(s)
 3. Decision Maker(s)
 4. Appeal Officer Decision Maker (s)
 5. Informal Resolution Process Facilitator(s)
- All team members must be impartial, unbiased, and free from conflicts.
 - All team members must be trained in the Title IX Regulations.

Title IX Team: Appeals Officer

Appeal Officer Role:

- Implements the right to appeal for both parties based on three grounds for appeal
- If an appeal is filed, evaluates the appeal request to determine applicability
- Provides a written Notice of Appeal to both parties
- Reviews NOA, Final Investigative Report, and Decision(s)
- Elicits and reviews written statements and arguments from both parties
- Renders written decision on appeal and explains rationale for the result
- Provides written decision to parties at same time

TITLE IX SCOPE AND DEFINITIONS

Federal Law - Title IX:

No person in the United States shall, on the basis of sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.

(Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. Section 1681 et seq.) and related regulations (34 C.F.R. Part 106).)

The 2020 Title IX Regulations

1. Regulations and Guidance

- Text of regulations contained in 34 CFR Part 106 have the full force and effect of law as of August 14, 2020

2. Overall Intent of Changes

- Strengthen/clarify Title IX protections for sexual misconduct Complainants and provide due process protections to Respondents facing accusations of sexual misconduct

3. Scope Under Title IX Regulations

- Amended sexual harassment definitions, clarified jurisdiction, and confirmed that Title IX sex discrimination includes sexual harassment and other sexual misconduct

4. K-12 Educational Institutions

- February 2020 OCR Enforcement Initiative to combat sexual assault in K-12 schools

Response to Sexual Harassment

According to 34 CFR § 106.44(a): A recipient with actual knowledge of sexual harassment in an education program or activity of the recipient against a person in the United States must respond promptly in a manner that is not deliberately indifferent (e.g., clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances).

Actual Knowledge

- Actual knowledge for K-12 Educational Institutions occurs when any employee has notice of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment.
- Best practice to provide annual training to K-12 employees about reporting responsibilities to the Title IX Coordinator or other designated Title IX Team Member.

Education Program or Activity

- Per § 106.44(a): An education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the recipient exercised substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs....
- At time of filing the formal complaint, the Complainant must be participating or attempting to participate in recipient's education program or activity.
- Application to Appeals: A party may appeal a Title IX Coordinator's dismissal of a formal complaint, or an allegation in the complaint.

Sexual Harassment Defined

According to § 106.30, Sexual Harassment means conduct on the basis of sex under one or more of following:

1. Quid Pro Quo Harassment

- Employee conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the recipient on the Complainant's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct

2. Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment

- Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies Complainant equal access to the recipient's education program or activity

Conduct on the basis of sex also includes other sexual acts including one or more of the following:

- Sexual assault per 20 U.S.C. 1092(f)(6)(A)(v): Includes Forcible and Nonforcible Sex Offenses
- Dating violence per 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10)
- Domestic violence per 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8)
- Stalking per 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30)

Sexual Harassment Defined, Cont.

3. Sexual Assault

— Forcible:

- Any sexual act directed against Complainant, forcibly, against Complainant's will, or without consent, including rape, sodomy, sexual assault with an object, and fondling

— Nonforcible:

- Offenses that do not involve force where the Complainant is incapable of giving consent, including statutory rape and incest

4. Dating Violence (34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10))

- Violence (on the basis of sex) committed by a Respondent:
 - who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the Complainant; and
 - where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors:
 - (i) The length of the relationship
 - (ii) The type of relationship
 - (iii) The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship

Sexual Harassment Defined, Cont.

5. Domestic Violence (34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8))

Felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence (on the basis of sex) committed by:

- A current or former spouse or intimate partner of the Complainant
- A person with whom the Complainant shares a child in common
- A person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the Complainant as a spouse or intimate partner
- A person similarly situated to a spouse of the Complainant under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or
- Any other person against an adult or youth Complainant who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

6. Stalking (34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30))

The term “stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct (on the basis of sex) directed at a Complainant that would cause a reasonable person to:

- Fear for their safety or the safety of others; or
- Suffer substantial emotional distress

APPEAL PROCEDURES

Appeal Rights

Both parties must be offered an appeal from a determination regarding responsibility, dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein, on the following bases: procedural irregularity, new evidence, or conflict of interest or bias.

Summarized from 34 C.F.R. Part 106, §106.45(b)(8)

Appealable Decisions

Under the Title IX regulations, only certain decisions can be appealed:

1. A decision to dismiss a complaint, whether it is a mandatory dismissal or a permissive dismissal
2. A decision to dismiss one or more allegations within a complaint (but not the whole complaint)
3. A decision to fully or partially remove a Respondent via Emergency Removal
4. The decision after the Title IX complaint process, which includes whether the Respondent is responsible for sexual harassment or whether the Respondent is not responsible for sexual harassment

Types of Appeal

1. Appeal of a Mandatory (Required) Dismissal
2. Appeal of a Permissive Dismissal
3. Appeal of an Emergency Removal Decision
4. Appeal of a Decision Appeal

 Reminder – each of these appeal types must include one or more of the proper grounds for the appeal.*

Mandatory Dismissal of Formal Complaint

- Required Dismissal per § 106.45(b)(3)
 - Recipient must dismiss the formal complaint if the conduct alleged:
 - Would not constitute sexual harassment as defined in § 106.30 even if proved
 - Did not occur in the recipient's education program or activity
 - Did not occur against a person in the United States
 - Such dismissal does not preclude action under another provision of recipient's Code of Conduct, Board Policy/Administrative Procedure, or California law

Permissive Dismissal of Formal Complaint

- Permissive Dismissal per §106.45(b)(3)
 - Recipient may dismiss the formal complaint or allegations any time during the investigation or hearing, if:
 - The Complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator in writing to withdraw the complaint
 - The Respondent is no longer enrolled or employed
 - Special circumstances prevent the recipient from gathering evidence in order to reach a determination
- Note: All dismissals require written notice and reasons, including the right to appeal, delivered to the parties at the same time

Appeal of Emergency Removal Decision

1. Institution may remove Respondent per § 106.44(c) by undertaking an individualized safety & risk analysis of Respondent:
 - The analysis determines if there is an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual arising from the allegations to justify removal
2. Notice to Respondent of Emergency Removal and opportunity to challenge decision immediately following the removal
3. Process cannot modify Respondent rights under IDEA, Section 504, or ADA

Grounds for Appeal of Determination of Responsibility

1. Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter
2. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter
3. The Title IX Coordinator, investigator(s), or decision-makers(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter

Reasons for Allowing Appeals

- 1. To ensure the procedures were followed to a fair result, including procedures involving the investigation, the “cross examination” opportunity, and the decision
- 2. To ensure that any new evidence that was not reasonably available at the time of the decision can be considered, if it could affect the outcome of the matter
- 3. To ensure that bias, partiality, or a conflict of interest (if any) of the Title IX Coordinator, the investigator, or the decision maker did not affect the outcome of the matter

Did Procedural Errors Affect the Outcome?

- Investigator Responsibilities per § 106.45(b)(5):
 - Investigator must thoroughly gather evidence
 - Investigator cannot access, consider, disclose, or use a party's privileged records without receiving voluntary, written consent from the party and/or parent (e.g., physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, counselor, or other recognized professional assisting in that capacity)
 - Investigator must provide equal opportunities to the parties, written notice of the interviews, allow the presence of advisors, allow gathering evidence and witnesses, provide review of the directly related evidence, and create a report that fairly summarizes the relevant evidence for the parties' review

Decision Maker Determines Responsibility per § 106.45(b)(7):

- When determining responsibility, decision makers must:
 - Apply the standard of evidence (e.g., “preponderance of evidence”)
 - Fairly implement a “written cross-examination” process for the parties by allowing relevant questions
 - Determine if the Respondent is “responsible” or “not responsible” for sexual harassment
 - Be unbiased, impartial, and not have a conflict of interest
 - Prepare a thorough written determination including findings of fact, conclusions, and the rationale

Steps During Appeal

- 1. Appeal Request Initiated: The Complainant and/or Respondent submit a written appeal to the Title IX Coordinator, who assigns an Appeal Officer
 - The Appeal Officer cannot be the investigator, decision maker, and/or the Title IX Coordinator in the present matter; the Appeal Officer must be unbiased, impartial, and free from a conflict of interest in the matter being appealed, and the Appeal Officer must be trained in the Title IX regulations
- 2. Notification: The Appeal Officer will notify all parties in writing of the appeal and offer both parties the opportunity to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome

3. Review Information: The Appeal Officer will review the appeal, any written statements submitted by the parties, as well as the Notice of Allegations, the Final Investigative Report (with attachments), the written cross-examination process, and the written determination
 - If needed, the appeal officer can ask questions of the Investigator, Title IX Coordinator, and/or Decision Maker(s)
 - The Appeal Officer may conduct limited interviews with the parties or witnesses as necessary for clarification, but should avoid re-doing the investigation or cross-examination process.
4. Issue a Written Decision Simultaneously to Both Parties: The written appeal decision must describe the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result

PRACTICAL APPLICATION & OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Practical Considerations

1. Understand the equitable participation of each party in the appeal process
2. Understand the value of deference and narrow appeals
3. Do not second-guess the decision; while you may not have reached the same decision being appealed, you must show deference to the decision unless there is a clear problem that affected the outcome
4. Do not provide a new review of all the evidence or hold a “de novo” hearing
5. Make an independent and impartial determination on appeal
6. Use the preponderance of the evidence standard when making a decision
7. Maintain the limited grounds for appeal

Best Practices with Appeals

- Explain your rationale
 - Why are you rejecting or upholding the appeal?
- Remand as a Remedy
 - If you agree with an issue on appeal, the most common remedy will be to remand the matter back to the appropriate level to be corrected
 - If the investigation is incomplete and additional relevant evidence may alter the outcome, consider sending it back for further investigation
 - If the decision did not apply the preponderance of the evidence standard or was unclear, consider sending it back for clarification

Hypothetical Discussion

On or about August 21, 2025, Respondent tutored Complainant after school in the library. Respondent put a hand on Complainant's knee, made comments about sexual acts, and then touched Complainant's groin area. When Complainant moved away, Respondent moved towards Complainant. Complainant immediately left the library.

Title IX Process Dismissal Appeal Scenarios

1. Scenario One: Respondent withdraws from the District. District dismisses from Title IX. Complainant appeals.
2. Scenario Two: The incident occurred at a public library. District dismisses from Title IX. Complainant appeals.
3. Scenario Three: The incident occurred in the library but during an after-school program that is run by an outside agency. District dismisses from Title IX. Complainant appeals.

Appeal of Emergency Removal Decision Scenarios

- Scenario One: Complainant reports that they are uncomfortable with Respondent remaining on campus. The Title IX Coordinator issues Respondent a notice of emergency removal and assigns Respondent to independent study. Respondent appeals.
- Scenario Two: Respondent and Complainant are both on the track team. Respondent tells other students Respondent was going to “get even” with Complainant for filing a complaint and sends Complainant messages via Snapchat stating the same. The Title IX Coordinator issues Respondent a notice of emergency removal and informs Respondent they cannot attend track practice or meets pending the outcome of the investigation. Respondent appeals.

Appeal of Determination of Responsibility Scenarios

1. Scenario One: The Investigator sent copies of the report electronically, and Respondent could not access the draft report for several days. Respondent asked but the Investigator declined to give the Respondent more time to review the draft report. Respondent appeals asserting procedural irregularity.
2. Scenario Two: Complainant asserts she just learned that Respondent lives in the same neighborhood as the Decision Maker and that the Decision Maker and Respondent's mother "socialize." Complainant files an appeal asserting the Decision Maker was biased.
3. Scenario Three: Respondent asserts that a friend was in the library and has footage of Respondent's interaction with Complainant. Respondent's friend just informed Respondent that she stumbled across the video while clearing pictures from her cell phone. Respondent appeals citing new evidence.

REMINDERS

Reminders

- 1. Recordkeeping: For each response required under § 106.44, a recipient must create and maintain records for 7 years
- 2. Retaliation: Section 106.71(a) – Retaliation Prohibited
 - No recipient or other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by Title IX or because the individual has made a report or complaint, testified, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing
 - Avoiding the Title IX Process May Be Retaliation - If the alleged behavior falls under § 106.30 definitions, a recipient cannot use the student conduct process as a way to avoid the rigorous Title IX grievance procedures; such a decision may constitute retaliation

Reminders, Cont.

3. Confidentiality Required by Recipient

- Recipient must keep identity of the Complainant, Respondent, and witness(es) confidential unless required by law “or as necessary to carry out Title IX proceeding”
- Regulations imply that the improper release of this confidential information could be retaliation

4. First Amendment Rights

- Parties exercising their 1st Amendment rights does not constitute retaliation under § 106.71(a)

5. False Statement Charge

- Recipient charging an individual with making a false statement in bad faith during Title IX process is not retaliation
- A responsibility determination (or no responsibility determination) is not sufficient evidence to conclude there was a bad faith false statement
