2016 Inductees

Paul S. Amos II '94

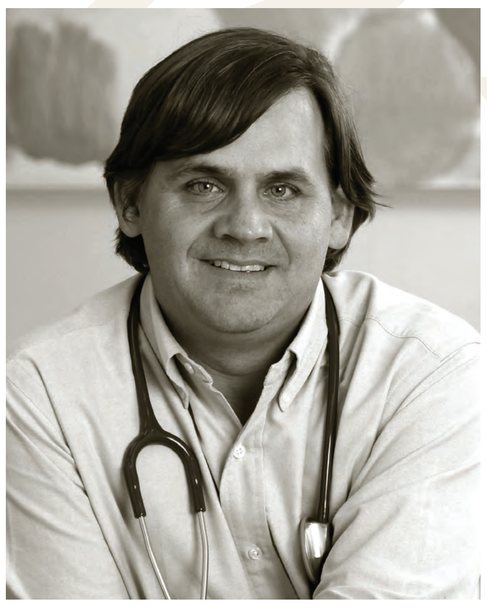

- In 2013, became President of Aflac, directly overseeing Aflac Japan
- Previously served as president and chief operating officer of Aflac U.S.
- Ranked sixth on ExecRank's 2012 list of the top 100 COOs in the United States
- Attended Duke University, Emory University, and Tulane University
- Member of the COLE Leadership Circle of Duke's Fuqua/Coach K. Center on Leadership & Ethics
- Member of Brookstone's board of trustees
- Serves on the boards of directors of Aflac Incorporated and the Turner School of Business at Columbus State University
- Member of the Georgia Research Alliance Board of Trustees

R. Keith Chambless '76

- Earned a bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the Georgia Institute of Technology
- President of GeoFields, Inc., managing clients in the Middle East, South America, and Thailand
- Chairman-elect of the Advisory Board of the George W. Woodruff School of Mechanical Engineering at Georgia Tech
- Served as a mentor and speaker for the American Society of Mechanical Engineers
- 2015 inductee into the Academy of Distinguished Engineering Alumni at Georgia Tech
- Served on the Board of Trustees of the Beta Iota Chapter of Alpha Tau Omega
- Philanthropic interests focus on providing long-term opportunities for leadership and innovation within educational institutions

Dr. Grant J. Scarborough '90

- Attended the University of Georgia and Mercer Medical School
- Completed his internal medicine and pediatric residency at the University of Tennessee–Memphis and Med/Peds residency at the University of Tennessee
- In 2007, co-founded Christ Community Health Services of Augusta
- Returned to Columbus in July of 2011 and founded MercyMed of Columbus, which provides medical services to the underserved
- Serves as the chair of the department of internal medicine for Mercer Medical School in Columbus
- Author of the book Awake My Soul, which chronicles the life and times of serving Jesus as a doctor for poor and underserved communities

BROOKSTONE SCHOOL
LOYALTY • COURAGE • WISDOM
EST. 1951