2025 Inductees

Mr. Jack Jenkins ‘82

- Attended the University of Mississippi before earning a Bachelor of Architecture from Auburn University in 1989.
- Practiced architecture for nine years in New York City; Jacksonville, Florida; Atlanta; and Columbus, Georgia.
- Founded Jenkins Architecture, Inc. in 1998, specializing in high-end residential design throughout the Southeast.
- Completed notable local commercial projects including St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, the Country Club of Columbus tennis facility, and the Village at Green Island.
- Designed several landmark Brookstone projects, including the Quad, Ella Kirven Building, Denson Bell Tower, and Turner Chapel.
- Serves as a loyal Alumni volunteer for Brookstone’s annual Career Day.
- Married to Fontaine Caldwell Jenkins, Brookstone Class of 1988; their three sons — William, Jack, and Sutton — are all Brookstone graduates.

Ms. Laura Hanley ‘95

- Holds a B.A. in International Affairs from George Washington University, with a focus on Africa.
- Earned an MBA in Marketing from University of Notre Dame.
- Began her career in the nonprofit sector before transitioning into banking.
- Currently serves as Chief Marketing Officer at Synovus, where she has worked for more than 18 years.
- Leads brand strategy, digital marketing, and major corporate transitions, including the evolution of a few dozen community banks to the Synovus Masterbrand and the current transition to Pinnacle Financial Partners.
- Expanded Synovus’s digital marketing capabilities across online, email, social media, and search platforms.
- Lives in Columbus, Georgia, with her son Tommy, an 8th grader at Brookstone School.

Mr. Willis “Trey” McCoy Privott III ‘08

- Began writing poetry as a student at Brookstone, where early encouragement sparked a lifelong passion for creative expression.
- In high school, he balanced running endless hours in track and cross-country with playing guitar, bass, singing, and experimenting on little 8-track recorders alongside friends.
- Studied Journalism in college, strengthening his storytelling and communication skills.
- Interned with AthFest in Athens, Georgia, deepening his connection to the music community.
- After moving to Austin, Texas, he signed a recording contract with New West Records and has toured extensively across the United States and Canada.
- Has performed at iconic venues including Red Rocks Amphitheatre and Ryman Auditorium.
- Contributed music featured in the award-winning television series Ted Lasso, which earned an Emmy and global acclaim.
- Beyond the stage, he advocates for youth and artist mental health awareness and has engaged in conversations with national leaders and public officials.
- Currently building his own record label and preparing to release Los Coast’s sophomore album independently before touring nationally and internationally.

BROOKSTONE SCHOOL
LOYALTY • COURAGE • WISDOM
EST. 1951