2019 Inductees

Catherine Biggers Trotter '73

- Multiple leadership roles over a near four-decade career of service to Brookstone School
- Developed and executed multiple fund-raising campaigns that allowed the school to grow and thrive
- Impacted school culture through servant-leadership, Deliberate Life, and academic excellence
- Service to Greater Columbus includes Historic Columbus Foundation, Junior League, Colonial Dames, and Girls Inc.
- Bachelors of Arts in Journalism from the University of Georgia

Deana Bass Williams '91

- Served as Deputy Chief of Staff to the United States Secretary of Housing and Urban Development
- Former Press Secretary and Spokesperson for U.S. Congressman Howard P. Buck McKeon (Former Chair of the House Education and Workforce Committee and the House Armed Services Committee), Director of Coalitions for U.S. Congresswoman Deborah Pryce (Former Chair of the House Republican Conference), and Deputy Director of Coalitions to Ken Mehlman (Former Chairman of the Republican National Committee).
- Formerly served as the Executive Director of The Gloucester Institute
- Undergraduate degree from Salem College and M.F.A. in film from Ohio University

Timothy Collins Wilson* '79

- 2015 inductee into the Georgia Music Hall of Fame
- Recorded two singles and nine albums charting in the Top 100 US Country charts, including recording with the Atlanta Rhythm Section and Muscle Shoals Rhythm Section
- Frequent guest and contributor on nationally syndicated Wilhite and Wall, John Boy and Billy, Big D and Bubba, and the Bob and Tom Show
- Bachelor of Arts in English from Presbyterian College

*Deceased = **