2022 Inductees

Sarah Chervenak Bolcar '89

- Attended Wesleyan College earning a Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science and Samford University's Cumberland School of Law
- Served 24 years as an FBI special agent with expertise in counterterrorism and intelligence programs
- Oversaw several FBI and OPE priority programs, to include engagement with state and local fusion centers, the eGuardian system, the Domestic Director of National Intelligence Representative Program, the FBI's participation in the Joint Counterterrorism Assessment Team, OPE's information sharing and dissemination program, and a comprehensive intelligence training initiative developed for law enforcement partners
- Selected in 2012 to lead the team responsible for designing and implementing the FBI's Threat Review and Prioritization process, which revolutionized how the FBI prioritizes national and local threats and develops national-level mitigation strategies
- Senior research associate with the Institute for Intergovernmental Research (IIR), providing programmatic support to the U.S. Department of Justice's Global Justice Information Sharing Initiative
- Assisted in the 1998 investigation of the U.S. Embassy bombing in Tanzania, served as a case agent for the 9/11 attack on the Pentagon, and participated in numerous investigations having a nexus to the 9/11 attacks

Michael Jarrett '92

- Attended the University of the South earning a Bachelor of Arts in American Studies
- Embarked on an eight-year career as a traveling singer-songwriter
- Following formal theological training, he was ordained a priest in the Anglican church in 2011
- Started a small Anglican community in Waco, TX, with doctors, college students, and professors whose worship intentionally engaged the local homeless community
- Started The Trinity Mission, which was initially only a podcast of morning prayer but quickly grew to reach thousands of people and now offers additional media resources for Christian formation, including several books that Michael has written himself
- Founded Trinity on the Border, a missionary community serving Christ along the south Texas and Mexico border
- Serves as the chaplain for all of the U.S. Coast Guard units south of Corpus Christi, TX

Bindi Parekh Lassige '95

- Attended Boston College and Michigan State University earning a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Boston College and an MBA from Michigan State University
- Worked with Microsoft where she provided business partner and talent management support across various business units before joining the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation
- Director of Human Resources at the Bill & Melinda Gates foundation, one of the largest foundations in the world, which seeks to dramatically improve the quality of life for billions of people
- Oversees all human resources related systems and technologies and manages a team of human resources generalists who provide client-aligned support across the foundation
- Supports the nonprofit mission of fighting poverty, disease, and inequity around the world with a specific focus on polio, water sanitation, and hygiene

BROOKSTONE SCHOOL
LOYALTY • COURAGE • WISDOM
EST. 1951