Camper's Acknowledgment of Risks & Photo Consent

In consideration of the services of Catholic Youth Organization, its officers, agents, employees, and all other associated entities hereinafter collectively referred to as 'CYO,' I agree as follows:

Certain risks are inherent in each activity and cannot be eliminated without destroying the unique character of the activity. These inherent risks are some of the same elements that contribute to the unique character of the activity and can be the cause of loss or damage to my equipment, or accidental injury, illness, or in extreme cases, permanent trauma or death. CYO does not want to frighten me or reduce my enthusiasm for these activities but believes it is important for me to know in advance what to expect and to be informed of the inherent risks.

Photograph and Video Consent: From time to time, pictures and video may be taken of CYO campers. We would like to be able to use these photographs and videos for flyers, Archdiocesan publications, and the CYO website. Written consent of the camper (and, if camper is under 18, the parent/guardian) is required. Names will not be posted unless written authorization is given by the camper and parent/guardian, and then only first names will be used. If there are concerns about pictures or videos posted on the website, please contact the organization or webmaster, and they will promptly be removed. Pictures of one to three students are permitted as long as an appropriate release form has been signed by the parent/guardian of each individual shown in the picture. Pictures of four or more students are permitted without a release form and will be printed without first and last names. There will be no compensation for use of any photograph or video at the time of publication or in the future.
