Principal's Message

Remember that there is no school on Monday, September 7th for Labor Day. We hope you enjoy your long weekend.

Finding Nemo Jr. rehearsals are underway. Mark your calendar. Evening play performances are November 4-7.

Brookside picture day is this Friday, September 11th.

Our Harvest Festival is scheduled for Friday, October 16th. It is our largest fundraising event of the year. Please reach out if you are interested in supporting us. Your help can come in a variety of ways - donations, support in set up or tear down, joining a committee, or working a one hour shift the night of the event. Please email us if you are able to assist in any way. brooksideharvestfest@gmail.com

San Joaquin County Office of Education is hosting a Math Festival. It is a FREE family event where students and families can discover how math is used in everyday life through fun, hands-on activities with community partners, including the Stockton Ports, Delta College, Otto Construction, and more. Come play, explore, and discover that math is everywhere—and everyone can be a mathematician!

English Learning Advisory Committee (ELAC)

Come join us for our first English Learner Advisory Committee meeting on Monday, September 14th at 8:00am in Room 110. This meeting is for all of our second language learner families.

ELAC is an opportunity to discuss ways that we can better support our English learners, inform families about school resources and upcoming events, share ideas to improve our school, and answer any parent questions.

We hope to see you there!

ELAC MEETINGS

Together, we support our English Learners to Shine!

Every Voice Matters!

Calling All Second Language Learner Families!
¡Invitamos a todas las familias de estudiantes que aprenden inglés!

Please join us for our monthly ELAC (English Learner Advisory Committee) meetings before school starts.

We are here to listen, support, and work together to help our students succeed!

At our ELAC meetings, we:

- DISCUSS WAYS
we, as a school, can support students who are learning English.
- INFORM FAMILIES
about important events, programs, and resources at our school.
- SHARE IDEAS
and work together to make our school the best it can be for all our students.
- ANSWER QUESTIONS
and help families understand the ins and outs of school.

MEETINGS ARE HELD:

- Monthly
- Before School Starts
- At Brookside Elementary

All families are welcome and encouraged to attend!

WE ARE THE BROOKSIDE BOBCATS!

Stronger Together. Better Together. Bobcat Family!

PTSA News

Our free Brookside shirts are on their way. We will let families know when we send them home with students.

If you signed up to be a room parent or art docent in our Google Form, you should have received an email from our room parent coordinator regarding your first assignment - Harvest Festival Class Baskets.

If you are interested in becoming a Room Parent reach out to Megan Bennett: mvbennett14@gmail.com or via Text: 209-403-4402

If you are interested in becoming an art docent for your child's class reach out to our Art Docent coordinator, Cheyene Harvey: (209) 235-8950

Finally, we are currently collecting donations for our Harvest Festival's Silent Auction. Please see the flyer below on items that could be donated. These are just ideas/suggestions. We appreciate all donations.
