40	There is a perceived environment of favoritism that is unhealthy for the school, let alone any school. This perception, realized or unrealized, prevents opportunities for other students in the community to gain experience in activities. All students should feel a sense of care and all students should be invited to volunteer in any aspect of the school. For example, if there is a media technology class, why aren't those students encouraged to engage in public speaking and given opportunities to practice public speaking outside of the classroom? There are parent resources available at the school that are not recognized nor utilized to bring out the best in all students. The school can't expect parents to simply volunteer their talents resources without seeking to find those resources themselves. Seek, you find. Knock, the door is opened. Ask, it is given. Simple principles.	3/8/2025 4:44 AM

Another is there are AWESOME teachers employed and district staff that encourage families to be involved.
