participating in the Bee will help your students:

- strengthen life skills like time management and goal setting
- inspire a lifelong love of learning
- gain confidence and camaraderie with their fellow students
- practice poise under pressure and public speaking
- develop vocabulary and language skills hosting a school spelling bee is simple. here's what you'll need:

1. a school bee coordinator
   to plan and coordinate the school spelling bee program
2. bee officials
   a 3-person panel of officials who serve as the pronouncer, judge and recordkeeper for your school spelling bee.
3. location
   for your school spelling bee (cafeteria, gym or auditorium)
4. a passion for helping your students have fun while learning!

choose the best approach for your school

traditional Students advance from classroom- or grade-level spelling bees to the school spelling bee.

written test
Students with the best test scores advance to your school spelling bee. Written test materials are included in your online portal!

opt-in
Students are nominated by teachers or volunteer to participate in the school spelling bee.

No matter what path their spelling bee journey follows, your child will gain knowledge in spelling and vocabulary that will help them shine their light on the world.

By inspiring the exploration of words, the Scripps National Spelling Bee illuminates pathways to lifelong curiosity, celebrates academic achievement and enriches communities.
