1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

Redlands Unified used Proposition 28 Arts and Music in Schools funds in 2025-26 to provide standards-based instruction in music, visual arts, theatre, dance, and media arts across 25 school sites serving elementary, middle, and high school students. Funded programs included elementary itinerant and general music instruction; secondary instrumental music, including band and orchestra; choral music; visual arts studio courses; theatre and drama; dance; and media arts, including graphic design, film, photography and video production. A total of $1,813,514.25 was invested in certificated salaries, enabling the district to hire and retain credentialed arts educators delivering instruction during the regular school day. Classified salaries accounted for $29,350.00 supporting essential staff roles in arts programming, and $595,925.25 was allocated to employee benefits, ensuring sustainable employment and program continuity. The district spent $165,809.28 on books and supplies, including musical instruments, theatre supplies, and art materials. Services and operating expenditures totaled $97,704.21, funding field trips, equipment rental, guest artists and consultants, and performance-related costs. An additional $132,600.69 in capital outlay funded facility improvements that directly support arts instruction, including audiovisual system upgrades in school performance areas and installation of a dance floor at Citrus Valley High School. No Proposition 28 funds were charged to indirect costs.
