In the 6th Grade Wiffle Ball Tournament of Donuts yesterday at Wiffler's Park, it was a wild, back-and-forth battle from start to finish as Allentown Alligators and M Dawg Elites traded big moments in an unforgettable Wiffle Ball showdown. The Alligators came out swinging, with Chris Tejada launching a solo homer to set the tone early. The Elites responded with a gritty four-run inning, stringing together quality at-bats and manufacturing runs one hitter at a time. Tejada continued his monster day at the plate, blasting a grand slam in his second at-bat before adding another solo homer in his third. But just when it looked like the Gators had done enough, the Elites staged a dramatic final-inning comeback. Trailing by one with two outs and the bases loaded, Avery Chen stepped up and delivered the moment of the game, crushing a walk-off grand slam to seal the win for the Elites. Today's game will feature the Silva Swagasaurs vs Krislyn Krushers.
