U of A Master Gardeners - Best Trees for Tucson

Thursday, September 3rd 5:00-6:30pm

What makes a tree the BEST choice for your landscape? Consider what you want in a tree. Lifespan, shade, form, evergreen, flower...all characteristics to consider when choosing that perfect desert landscape tree. Learn about many under-appreciated gems, and how to choose, plant and care for that special tree.

Presented by Pima County Master Gardeners from the University of Arizona Cooperative Extension

No Registration is required.

Ribbon Bookmarks

Wednesday, September 16th 3:30-4:30pm

Ribbon bookmarks are a super fun, quick, and highly customizable craft project. With just a beautiful piece of ribbon and some creative decorations, you can design a stylish place-saver that keeps your books looking fabulous.

Ages 14 and up only. No registration is required, but seating is limited.

Watercolor: Paint Desert Cactus Blooms

Thursday, September 17th 5:00-6:30pm

From the mighty Saguaro, to blooming hedgehogs, prickly pear and barrel cactus, there is a multitude of native cactus to pick from. Sketch and paint your cactus garden then add colorful blooms.

Presented by Jeanine Colini

For ages 14 and up. Registration is required starting August 27th.

Color, Relax, Renew

Friday, September 25th 3:30-4:30pm

There are many benefits to taking the time to color. Here are five of them:

1. Acts as a gateway to mindfulness.
2. Reduces stress and anxiety.
3. Provides an outlet for emotional expression.
4. Enhances motor skills and hand-eye coordination.
5. Encourages creativity and self-expression.

Join us in a calm, welcoming environment and experience the many benefits of coloring for yourself!

Ages 14 and up only.

No registration is required but seating is limited.
