Columbus School for Girls

2026-2027 School Profile

Founded in 1898 and located just east of downtown Columbus in Bexley, Columbus School for Girls is an independent college preparatory day school accredited by the Independent Schools of the Central States (ISACS). The CSG curriculum is designed specifically for girls age 3 through grade 12 with the mission of empowering girls to discover their distinct potential as learners and leaders. The 192 Upper School students reflect the diverse academic, ethnic, socio-economic, and religious backgrounds of the greater Columbus area. Each year, the school grants approximately $3.9 million in scholarships, need-based tuition assistance, and remission.

SIGNATURE PROGRAMS

COMPUTER SCIENCE

CSG offers a fully-integrated computer science curriculum for all students age 3 through grade 12. By the time they graduate, CSG students will have extensive hands-on experience with block-based programming, computer engineering, text-based programming, user experience design, storyboarding, design, programming, and animation.

INSTITUTE FOR INNOVATION & LEADERSHIP

CSG's Institute for Innovation & Leadership is a signature program designed to empower our students through advanced courses of study, specialized projects, internships, and more. The Institute serves as a framework to enhance original programming, coursework, curricular resources, and experiential learning opportunities through its six Centers of Excellence.

Columbus School for Girls does not rank. We calculate both a weighted and unweighted GPA. The weighted GPA adds 0.33 to every Honors and AP course grade.

DIPLOMA DESIGNATION

Students may graduate as Distinguished Scholars through the Institute for Innovation & Leadership by enrolling in six elective courses offered through the Institute, participating in five discrete experiential learning opportunities, and completing a culminating capstone project, either a 20-page thesis paper defended to a panel of educators or an independent project of comparable scope with a public presentation.

DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Columbus School for Girls (CSG) celebrates diversity and is committed to becoming a more equitable and inclusive community where all members feel safe, connected, and respected. We define diversity broadly, considering each member's race, religion, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, socio-economic status, family structure, and physical ability as crucial components of that diversity. Our moral responsibility is to create an anti-racist environment that confronts all forms of bias. This work is core to an excellent education. It is nurtured by: culturally relevant teaching and curriculum, programming and learning opportunities for all community members, attracting and retaining a diverse faculty, staff, and student body, and practices and procedures that hold all of us accountable. We aim to ensure that every member of our community experiences a deep sense of belonging at CSG. This work is not just for some people; it is for all of us.
