1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

Blue Ridge Academy is utilizing Prop 28 funding to support the school's arts education opportunities for students. This includes instruction and learning from our field trip teams, content specialists, and community specialists. As an independent study school, we are utilizing Prop 28 funds to enrich student experiences. In addition to funding staff that provide arts education, we are utilizing less than 20% of funding on third party approved vendors that provide music instruction, art classes, and theater performances to our students. The school is a non-classroom based school and does not provide on-site instruction.
