Why Malden Catholic?

Our new Middle School helps students start off strong in their college preparatory journey. Lancers challenge themselves, create lifelong relationships with their diverse classmates, and live according to universal values in a safe, nurturing environment.

Student outcomes

Malden Catholic alums go on to study at some of the most competitive colleges in the country. Enrolling your child at MC sets them up for a lifetime of learning and equips them with competitive advantages.

98% of Malden Catholic graduates attend a 4-year college or university

95% of Class of 2026 students received scholarships

95% of students participate in sports and cocurricular activities

Compassionate. Collaborative. Codivisional.

Following the Xaverian value of compassion, we support an enriching community of young scholars who treat each other and those around them with empathy and respect.

Our codivisional model — which includes a Boys and Girls Division that learn in both separate and co-educational settings — sets us apart from other Catholic institutions in the area. We foster a balanced and inclusive environment to create well-rounded students prepared to learn and succeed in a diverse world.

Built for academic excellence

Malden Catholic's new 70,000 square-foot building contains a middle school division with grades 6-8, bringing its codivsional model to a larger audience.

An investment in the MS experience is an investment in future learning, preparing students for high school studies and beyond.

- Middle school laboratories with the latest in classroom equipment
- All academic programming integrated with high school for a full 6th–12th grade curriculum
- Focused extracurriculars in STEM, Performing Arts and Service
- 12 classrooms designed specifically for middle school students and how they learn
- Dedicated Dining Commons for middle school students
