

Welcome!

Innovation Academy

ALLIED HEALTH

Cramer, Dawes, & Holmes

TEACHER INTRODUCTION

Erica Cramer, RN, BSN, MSN

- Background in Nursing
- Worked in Various Inpatient/Outpatient Settings as a Bedside Nurse
- Nursing Focus- Chemotherapy/Immunotherapy and Oncology
- Masters in Nursing Education
- Ohio University, University of Toledo, Benedictine University

Dr. D

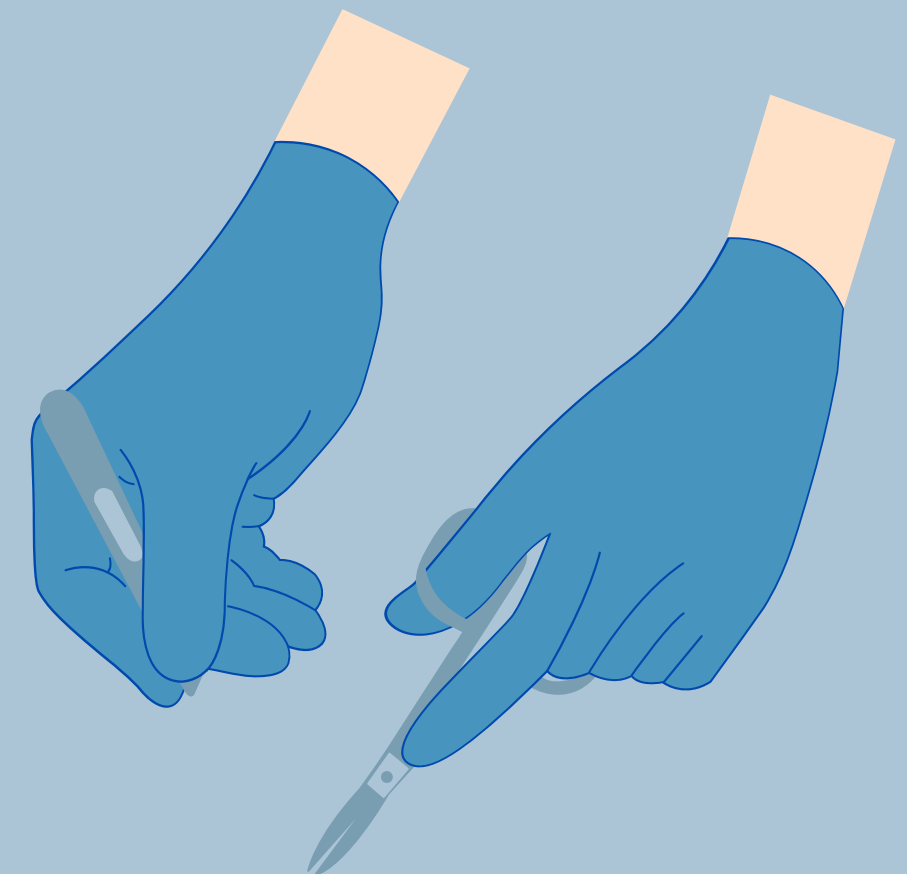

Medical degree from Temple
University

Foot and ankle surgeon

Wound care and limb salvage
specialty

Worked in hospital,
outpatient, ambulatory
surgery centers, team medic
for various sports teams

NY → ATL → PHL →
Maryland → ATL

Ms. Holmes

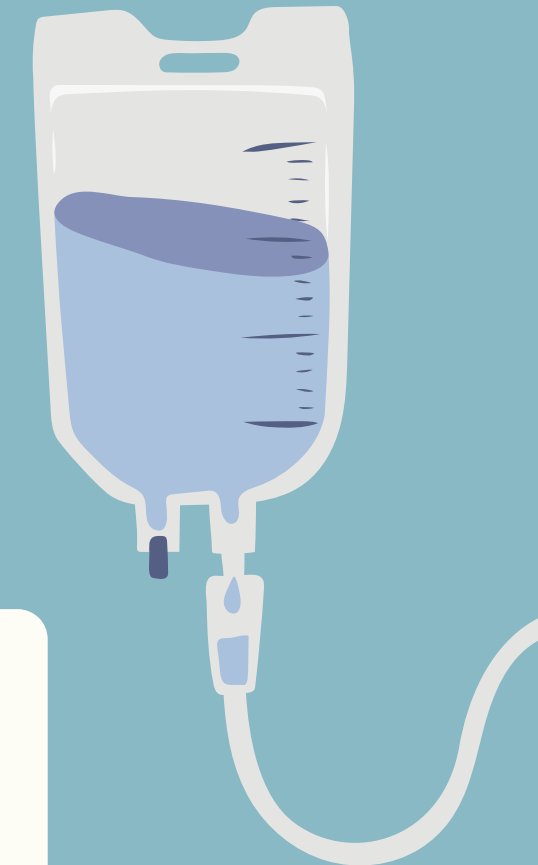

SURGICAL TECHNOLOGIST
LICENSED PRACTICAL NURSE

*PEDIATRIC

*SURGICAL OTOLARYNGOLOGY

*ELEMENTARY SCHOOL
TEACHER AT INNOVATION

What is Allied Health

- An opportunity for IA students to learn how to be effective and efficient multi-skilled healthcare assistants as they develop working knowledge of various allied health opportunities throughout the course

End of Pathway Certification Exam- National Healthcareer Association Certified Clinical Medical Assistant

GOAL: CERTIFIED MEDICAL ASSISTANT

Major Content Areas

01

Anatomy & Physiology

02

Phlebotomy

03

Clinical Patient Care
Concepts

04

EKG & Cardiovascular
Testing

05

Medical Law & Ethics

06

Administrative Assistant
Concepts

07

Medication Administration

Grading

Major Grades 55%

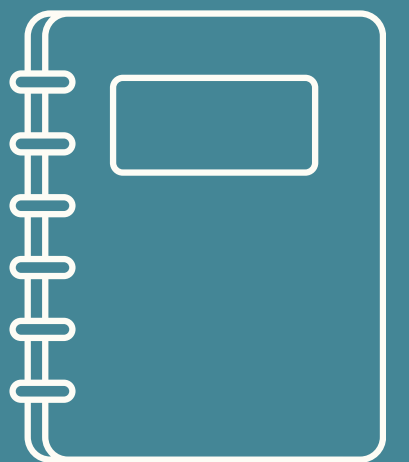

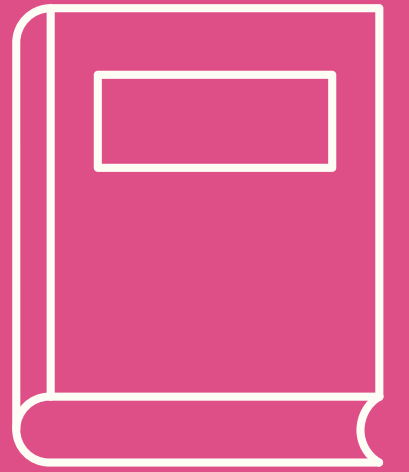

Unit Exams, Major Skills Practical's, Projects,
Pathway Prep Notebook

Minor Grades 35%

Skills Practicals, Critical Thinking Activities,
Quizzes, Case Studies

Practice Grade 10%

Weekly Medical Terminology Quizzes &
Homework assignments, Weekly iceV bundles

This Week at a Glance

01 Observation Challenge

02 Syllabus

03 Introduction to the Lab

04 Week 1 Assignment

05 iceV orientation

06 Start Notes for Unit 1

07 Have fun!

