Heating/Cooling Switch Over

Switching over from heating to cooling and back again takes place each year targeting May 15th and October 15th for completion. As the process takes approximately one week to accomplish, these two months were chosen because they offer the most moderate temperatures to accomplish a switch with best results.