

Who We Are

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, the premier Catholic college-preparatory school for boys in Western New York, was founded in 1861.

Chartered by the New York State Board of Regents, the school is a member of the Middle Atlantic States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the Christian Brothers' Educational Association, the College Board, and the National Secondary Principals' Association.

Although operating under Lasallian Roman Catholic auspices, qualified students of all faiths are eligible for admission. A challenging academic program is offered to the students after a selective and competitive admission process.
