

AP US Government & Politics

JAMES CAMPBELL

-
- I (James Campbell) teach AP US Government & Politics.
 - Email: CampbellJC@fultonschools.org
 - I have a bachelor's degree in economics and English, a master's degree in public administration, and completed the coursework for a doctorate in political science, concentrating in political economy.

- I currently also teach: Civics
- I have previously taught:
 - AP Comparative Government & Politics (which everyone should take)
 - AP World History
 - AP Microeconomics and Macroeconomics
 - Current Events and International Affairs
 - Literature
 - Research

-
- ▶ I teach am in room 275.
 - ▶ Canvas is the learning management system.
 - ▶ I will post the tentative schedule and assignments in modules
 - ▶ PowerPoints, study guides, and assignments will be in modules in Canvas.
 - ▶ This class uses the Fulton County grading percentages (55% majors, 35% minors, 10% practice).
 - ▶ Students who earn below a 75 on a major assignment may recover that assignment for up to a 75.
 - ▶ Recovery is not available for minor or practice assignments.
-

Flex Fridays are school days and flex Friday work is schoolwork.

Students must sign up for AP Classroom in order to complete many assignments and in order to be registered for the AP exam!

Characteristics of My Classroom

1. No Busy Work
2. Student Commitment
3. Manageable Assignments
4. Energy and Enthusiasm
5. Humor
6. Varied Instruction with Group work
7. Clear Expectations
8. Student Input Valued
9. Respect
10. Structure and Organization

Your learning is my priority and OUR responsibility

I have chosen to not overload you outside of the classroom. I promise to cover ALL the content in the class time allotted

This means that I need you here EVERY DAY (to the extent that it is possible), and I need your best effort every day, including Flex Fridays

