OPS Elementary Assessments At-A-Glance

Screener Language Defined

- BOY: Beginning of the Year (Fall)
- MOY: Middle of the Year (Middle)
- EOY: End of the Year (Spring)
- Dates for Screening Windows

Assessments & Screeners Used for Monitoring and/or Placement

- Amira Learning (Online) - Diagnostic screener used for BOY, MOY, and EOY reading benchmarks
    - Assessing: Phonemic Awareness, Phonics, Fluency, Vocabulary, Comprehension, and Characteristics of Dyslexia.
    - BOY and MOY are used for intervention support during the school year
- Exact Path (Online) - Diagnostic screener used for BOY, MOY, and EOY math benchmarks
    - Assessing Grade Level Skills: Numbers & Operations, Algebraic Reasoning, Geometry & Measurement, Data & Probability
    - Administers a diagnostic assessment that places students on an individualized learning path based on skill needs
    - EOY data in 4th grade is used to assist with placement eligibility for Advanced Math in 5th grade
    - EOY data in 5th grade is used to assist with placement eligibility for Advanced Math in 6th grade

- Owasso's Math Proficiency Based Test (PBT) (digital) - Proficiency-Based Assessment given to eligible 5th grade students in the spring for placement in 6th grade
    - Assessing: 6th and 7th grade math standards

- Oklahoma State Testing Program (OSTP) (online) - State-required assessments: Reading (3-5), Math (3-5), Science (5)
    - Assessing: State Standards in the above-listed areas

- Naglieri Nonverbal Ability Test 3rd Ed. (NNAT3) (digital 3-5, paper K-2) - Primary gifted assessment
    - All 4th graders screened in the fall
    - All 1st graders screened in the spring

- Cognitive Abilities Test (CogAT) (digital 3-5, paper K-2) - As needed only, second gifted assessment for students who score between 90-96% on the primary gifted assessment

This list is representative of the assessments and screeners used across the district.

Last Updated September 10, 2026