- READ BEFORE THE PLEDGE:

On September 11, 2001, 2,977 lives were lost in the terrorist attacks against the United States. Our country was changed forever.

President George W. Bush signed into law the designation of September 11 as Patriot Day—a day of remembrance, mourning, and respect for those who lost their lives and for the brave men and women who helped save others.

Today, we honor their memory, remember their courage, and pay tribute to the heroes who answered the call in our nation's time of need.

We will never forget!
