

1996

Founding Campaign

A group of parents and community members come together in a living room with the idea to form a girls middle school and begin a campaign to raise $140,000.

1999

Doors Open

Julia Morgan School for Girls officially opens its doors under Head of School Ann Clarke and Board Chair Ilana DeBare, with 35 6th graders at the Holy Names Campus .

2002

First Graduates

In the spring of 2002, the founding class, which has grown to 49 students, proudly becomes the first graduating class.

2003

The Future is Now Campaign

The community launches a $2.5M capital campaign to restore a building on the Mills College campus and move from Holy Names.

2005

Move to Mills College

After successfully raising funding to retrofit a space at Mills College, students are welcomed to campus in our new space.

2006

Practice for Life Campaign

The school launches a $575,000 campaign to build an outdoor play space, STEAM lab, and edible garden.

2008

Athena Fund Endowment

The founders contribute a $110,000 matching gift to create the Athena Fund, ensuring a legacy of tuition assistance will serve the school for years to come.

2024

25th Anniversary Celebration

Families and students past and present come together for a series of celebrations, from a walking architectural tour of Mills College to a film festival and party with founding Head of School, Ann Clarke.

