Upstaged

by Patricia McCowan

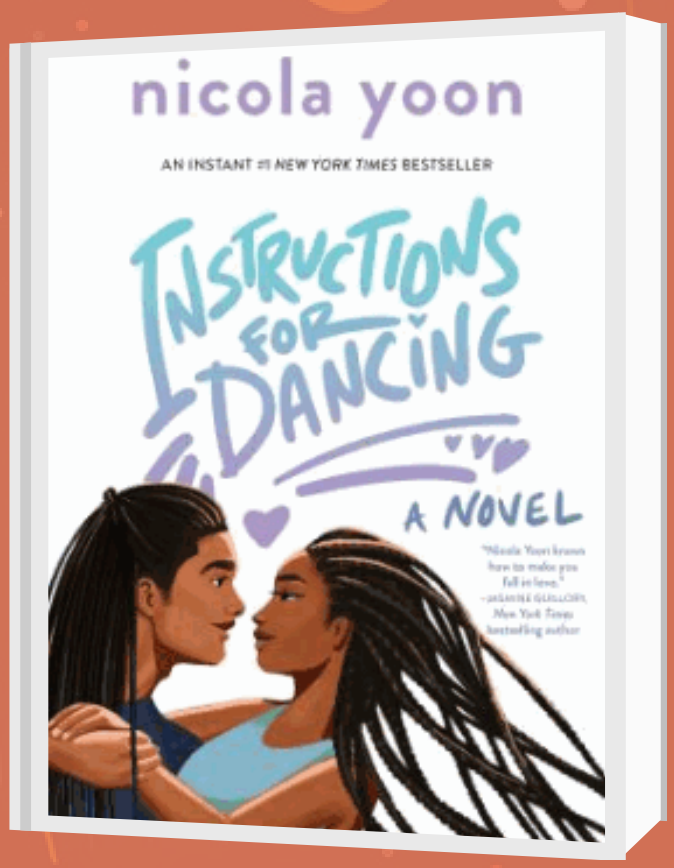

When Ellie lands a spot with theater company, she comes up against a tightknit group of talented and competitive performers and wonders what she has to do to stop feeling upstaged by everyone.

This Tiny Perfect World

by Lauren Gibaldi

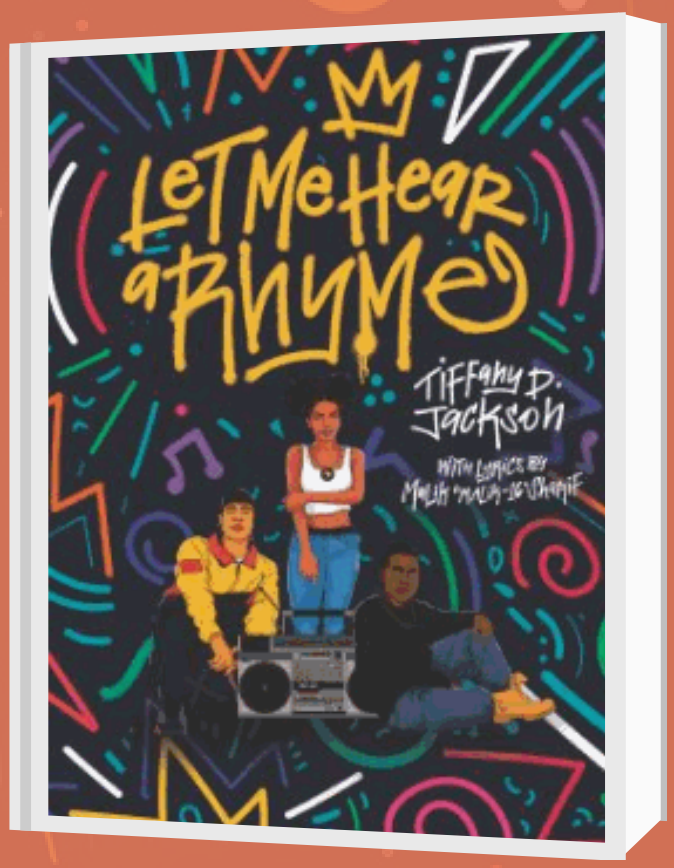

Penny loves her small-town life: she's going to take over the family diner, and, one day, she'll marry her high school sweetheart, Logan. But when Penny unexpectedly lands a scholarship to a prestigious summer theater camp, she meets new friends, including Chase, a talented young actor with big-city dreams, and begins to realize that maybe the life everyone (including her) expects her to lead is not the one she was meant to have.

Instructions for Dancing

by Nicola Yoon

After Evie witnesses a couple kiss and has a vision of how their romance began and how it will end, she realizes that even the greatest love stories eventually end with a broken heart. As Evie tries to understand her vision, she finds herself at La Brea Dance Studio, learning to waltz, fox-trot, and tango with a boy named X. Falling for X is definitely not what Evie had in mind, and Evie starts to wonder: Is love worth the risk?

Let Me Hear a Rhythm

by Tiffany Jackson

Quadir and Jarrell aren’t cool letting their best friend Steph's music lie forgotten under his bed after he's murdered. With the help of Steph's younger sister Jasmine, they come up with a plan to promote Steph's music under a new rap name: the Architect. Soon, everyone wants a piece of him. When his demo catches the attention of a hotheaded music label rep, the trio must prove Steph's talent from beyond the grave.
