SERVING GIRLS IN GRADES 6 THROUGH POST-GRADUATE

FUTURE-READY LEARNING

UNIQUE COURSES

Students explore distinctive courses, such as Character Design, Scientific Illustration, Dystopian Vision in Literature, Video Games as Literature, Pop Culture and History, Discrete Math, and The Nature of Food.

HONORS PROJECTS

High school students can earn honors credit by designing individualized projects, including films screened at a local theater, original video games, and advanced science-fair research.

AP CLASSES

With 25+ AP courses across disciplines, students can challenge themselves with college-level study while building a schedule that reflects their strengths and interests.

DUAL ENROLLMENT

Students can take college courses while enrolled at Linden Hall. Credits count toward high school graduation and transfer to most colleges and universities.

ESL

Middle and upper school English learners build proficiency through immersive language instruction and targeted content support, including ESL Literature, History, Biology, and core-class support.

MIDDLE SCHOOL JOURNEY

Middle school at Linden Hall helps girls build confidence, curiosity, and independence. Small classes include Introduction to Engineering; Language, Skills, and Planning; and English and history courses built around shared themes, allowing students to make connections across subjects. Our girls choose electives in music, theater, visual arts, and STEM.

Beyond the classroom, middle schoolers join clubs and athletics, serve as student ambassadors and class officers, and take part in the Big Sister Little Sister program and other school traditions. Weekly advisory offers space for guidance and connection, and the journey culminates in an eighth-grade promotion speech that lets each student share her voice with the community.

DAY

Day students enjoy a warm, inclusive, and globally diverse community like no other, all within driving distance of home. They are fully part of Linden Hall life and have access to clubs, athletics, performances, traditions, and campus spaces before and after the academic day. Transportation is available from areas as far as Hershey, Reading, and York.

BOARDING

From middle school until graduation, 5- and 7-day boarders develop the independence to thrive after Linden Hall. Dorm parents act as mentors and guides to ensure that each girl learns, grows, and reaches her potential. An immersive living experience allows boarders to cultivate meaningful relationships that will stay with them for the rest of their lives.

SMALL TOWN, BIG OPPORTUNITIES

Our historic, 49-acre campus is situated in downtown Lititz, PA. Once named "America's Coolest Small Town," Lititz offers dozens of unique shops, restaurants, and attractions. Students love visiting Wilbur Chocolate Company, Julius Sturgis Pretzel Bakery, Greco's Ice Cream, Lititz Springs Park, the Farmer's Market, and more. Residents enjoy the best of safe small-town living, the amenities of a sophisticated urban setting, and proximity to airports/major metropolitan areas.
