- active participation in course (communicating with your peers and your instructor)

WHAT TO DO WHEN ABSENT (NOT from athletics or club activities or any other extracurricular activities at the high school): All classroom assignments will be on paper and can be obtained in the classroom upon your return. Lectures and assignments will be uploaded to Google Classroom after class for future reference. It is your responsibility to obtain the papers and/or check Google Classroom for the learning you have missed, and you can always ask me, as well.

- ◆ It is best to inform me of your absence particularly if you end up being out for more than one day due to an illness or any other personal matter.
- ◆ I do not need to know what is going on in your life unless you wish to spill that information.
- ◆ I can keep you informed of what is going on or just be able to set aside the papers for you upon your return.
- ◆ A one day departure is not a need to inform me unless you need me to know.
- ◆ With this type of absence, the school policy is three days for work to be turned in if it was during a due date that you were gone though it has been nice when people simply email me their work by taking a picture or sending the Google Doc if I do not have access to the document, but it is not required.

ATHLETES: What to do when you are absent - You have a sports schedule. Read it, memorize it, and keep it handy as all due dates for this course are given out verbally, on the whiteboard, and/or in the comments of each assignment in PowerSchool. You are not given three days to turn in work like a regular absence. Here is the wording from the student handbook for this school year:

Make Up Work: When an absence is due to a school activity, all work due the day of the absence must be completed and turned in before the student(s) leave. Work assigned for the day following the absence; must be completed when student(s) arrive at class the next day.

CLUB MEMBERS/CLUB OFFICERS/EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITY STUDENTS/CTE PARTICIPANTS, AND ANYONE ELSE I HAVE MISSED CONNECTED TO AN ACTIVITY WITH

PAGE HIGH SCHOOL: What to do when you are absent - Same goes for this group as you know when you are leaving for an activity and wording from the student handbook for this school year applies to this group, as well:

Make Up Work: When an absence is due to a school activity, all work due the day of the absence must be completed and turned in before the student(s) leave. Work assigned for the day following the absence; must be completed when student(s) arrive at class the next day.
