EXPLORE THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST WITH BOLD EARTH

Take a trip of a lifetime this summer on another amazing Bolles Expedition to visit the Pacific Northwest region of the U.S. Alongside Bolles faculty leaders and expert guides from Bold Earth, students will discover the wild charm and natural wonders of the Pacific Northwest. First you'll head to the hiker's paradise of Mt. Rainier and experience stunning views of the glacier-capped volcano. You'll lend a hand with local conservation efforts, removing invasive species and supporting trail maintenance to protect this iconic national park. You'll then travel to the Columbia River Gorge and visit the local museum to learn about the region's history before experiencing its breathtaking scenery firsthand. You'll end your adventure on the White Salmon River, enjoying a thrilling whitewater rafting expedition. Beyond experiencing incredible landscapes, this experience is designed to push you out of your comfort zone and develop your outdoor and leadership skills.
