

OFFICIAL FACEBOOK PAGE & SOCIAL MEDIA GUIDELINES

The Wyoming Central School District utilizes Facebook as an additional communication tool to share news, celebrate student and staff accomplishments, highlight district events, and provide timely information to our school community. Social media is intended to supplement—not replace the District's official communication channels, including the District website, ParentSquare, official publications, and direct communications from the District.

Purpose

The District's official Facebook page exists to:

- Share information about school programs, events, and activities.
- Celebrate the achievements of our students, staff, and community.
- Provide updates regarding district initiatives and important announcements.
- Promote positive engagement with our school community.

Official Communications

Information posted on the District's Facebook page is intended for informational purposes only. Official notices, legal notices, Board of Education information, emergency notifications, and other official communications may also be distributed through the District website, ParentSquare, or other authorized communication methods.

The District's Facebook page should not be used to report emergencies, submit complaints, request student information, communicate confidential matters, or submit requests under the Freedom of Information Law (FOIL).

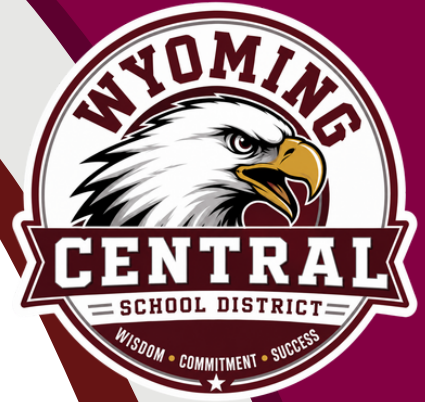

Third-Party Platform

The Wyoming Central School District's Facebook page is hosted by Meta Platforms, Inc. and is subject to Facebook's Terms of Service, Community Standards, Privacy Policy, and all applicable copyright and intellectual property laws. The District does not control the operation, availability, privacy practices, or policies of Facebook.

Users are responsible for ensuring that any content they post complies with Facebook's Terms of Service and all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including copyright and intellectual property requirements.

Public Comments

The District welcomes respectful dialogue and values community engagement. Comments posted by members of the public do not reflect the views, opinions, or positions of the Wyoming Central School District, its Board of Education, administration, faculty, staff, or students. The District does not endorse or verify the accuracy of comments made by third parties.

Comment Moderation

To maintain a respectful and productive environment, the District reserves the right to hide or remove comments that:

- Include profanity, obscenity, or vulgar language.
- Contain personal attacks, harassment, threats, or discriminatory remarks.
- Promote illegal activity.
- Include commercial advertising, spam, or solicitations.
- Disclose confidential, personally identifiable, or student information.
- Violate copyright, trademark, or other intellectual property rights.
- Are off-topic or repeatedly disruptive.
- Contain misinformation that could jeopardize student or staff safety.
- Violate Facebook's Terms of Service or Community Standards.

The District also reserves the right to limit or block users who repeatedly violate these guidelines.

Copyright

Unless otherwise noted, content created by the Wyoming Central School District—including photographs, graphics, videos, logos, and written materials is the property of the District and may not be reproduced, modified, or distributed without permission, except as permitted by law.

Users are responsible for ensuring that any content they submit does not infringe upon the copyright or intellectual property rights of others.

Privacy

To protect student and staff privacy, individuals should not post confidential information, student records, personally identifiable information, or other information protected by state or federal law.

Accessibility

The District is committed to providing accessible communications. Individuals who require information in an alternative format or who encounter accessibility barriers are encouraged to contact the District Office for assistance.
