Important Information:

- Eligibility begins seven (7) calendar days after the grading period ends, not including holidays.
- Academic eligibility is based on the first six weeks of school and each nine-weeks grading period after that. Semester averages are not used to determine eligibility.
- Students have two opportunities to regain eligibility:
 - At the three-weeks progress report
 - At the six-weeks progress report
- During Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring Break, all students are temporarily eligible. However, students who were ineligible before the break will return to ineligible status after the holiday until the next grade check and grace period.
- Students in grades 7–9 who are promoted to the next grade level begin the school year eligible for the first six weeks.
- For high school students, eligibility for the first 6 weeks of a school year are based on credit requirements:
 - Sophomores (2nd year): Must have earned 6.5 credits
 - Juniors (3rd year): Must have earned 12 credits
 - Seniors (4th year): Must have earned 18 credits
- Please note: The UIL Eligibility Calendar may change if there are adjustments to the school calendar due to lost instructional time.
