V. FINANCIAL REPORT

Jennifer Fuller confirmed auditor approval for prior-year financials. Final carryover balances entering the new fiscal year are $7.745 million for the General Fund (exceeding projections), $1.869 million for the Building Fund, $1.12 million for Child Nutrition, $14.2 million for the Bond Fund, and $11.5 million for the Sinking Fund.

General Fund spending rose 11.4% due to absorbing Building Fund utility and facility expenses following depleted lease-purchase funds. However, General Fund revenue increased by $412,000. A state-landed reimbursement of $200,000 was received. There is also an interest amount because there wasn't a sweep account for last July. Building Fund spending decreased by 34% due to this expense shift, while tax revenue rose $2,600. Child Nutrition spending rose 23.7% after re-opening prior-year purchase orders for incomplete work, offset by a $685 federal claim increase. Both the Bond Fund ($4.8 million spent) and Sinking Fund ($10.9 million spent) remain on track for scheduled July debt payments. Timing of prior-year bond sales caused revenue variances in both funds, though Sinking Fund tax collections grew by $16,000.

In response to Neal Cast, Jennifer stated that a preliminary budget based on temporary allocations is being finalized with auditors. It will be presented in September, with formal board approval targeted for October. Higher revenues and expenditures are anticipated.
