Traverse Spain from capital to coast on this fun-filled 9-day Spanish adventure!

Day 1: Departure from the USA

Day 2: Madrid Welcome to Madrid where you meet your Tour Director at the airport. Later, join a CHA Walking Tour to the Puerta del Sol.

Day 3: Madrid This morning's guided sightseeing of Spain's proud capital shows you the Plaza de España and the Cervantes Monument with its statues of literary characters Don Quixote and Sancho Panza. Admire the historic Plaza Mayor, the city's most important architectural landmark, and enjoy views of the Alcala Gate, Oriente Square and the Parliament. Included is a visit to the 18th-century Royal Palace, richly decorated with fine tapestries and furnishings. End your tour with a visit to the Prado Museum, where the finest works of Spain's greatest artists El Greco, Velazquez and Goya are on display. Explore the museum's many treasures with the help of your Tour Director.

Day 4: Madrid-El Escorial-Segovia-Madrid Today's full-day excursion from Madrid begins with a drive to nearby El Escorial to visit King Philip II's imposing Palace of El Escorial. Afterwards, continue to Segovia to see its remarkable Roman aqueduct and to visit Queen Isabella's fairytale Alcazar. Return to Madrid.

Day 5: Madrid-Toledo-Seville Today's journey takes you to Toledo, a unique blend of Christian, Jewish and Moorish cultures which co-existed peacefully in the Middle Ages. Visit the Church of Santo Tome, housing El Greco's "The Burial of the Count of Orgaz," and the Gothic Cathedral filled with extraordinary works of religious art. Continue to Andalusia, once the seat of Moorish power in Spain, as you make your way to Seville. Tonight, enjoy an Evening Walking Tour.

Day 6: Seville-(Evening Flamenco) Guided sightseeing of Seville features Maria Luisa Park, the Torre del Oro, the Plaza de España, and a stroll through the city's old Santa Cruz quarter.
Admire five-story Giralda Tower dominating the city skyline as you visit Seville's Cathedral, the largest Gothic building in Spain and burial place of Christopher Columbus. Tonight, consider our optional Andalusian Flamenco show.

Day 7: Seville-Cordoba-Granada Today, depart for Cordoba, the Moors' "Mecca to the West," where guided sightseeing upon arrival includes a visit to the intriguing Mezquita, an 8th-century mosque supported by hundreds of marble columns. Continue to Granada, one of the most beautiful cities in Spain.

Day 8: Granada-Costa del Sol Your expert local guide takes you on an in-depth tour of the Alhambra Palace, a remarkably preserved example of Moorish architecture, and the Generalife Gardens, the former summer retreat of Moorish kings, with its intricate pattern of gardens, fountains and walkways. Later, drive to the sunny Costa del Sol for free time.

Day 9: Costa del Sol-Malaga-Departure Drive to Malaga to board your return flight.
