

Brownsboro High School National Honor Society Dismissal Procedures

1. Members who fall below the standards which were the basis for their selection shall be promptly warned in writing by the Chapter adviser and given a reasonable amount of time to correct the deficiency. In the case of flagrant violation of school rules or civil laws a member does not have to be warned.

2. If a student does not correct the deficiency within the allotted time the faculty advisor will convene the faculty council.

2.1 The student will be notified in writing that a meeting has been scheduled to review their membership within the chapter. At that time they will be given an opportunity to request a due process hearing with the faculty council before a vote is taken. Parents or legal guardians are able to attend the hearing if they choose.

2.2 Faculty council will then take a vote or issue further consequences to the member.

3. Possible actions that can be taken by the faculty council include, but are not limited to dismissal, probation, extra service requirements, and loss of membership privileges.

3.1 Dismissal will follow the outlined procedures from the bylaws and here.

3.2 Probation can be set for a specific time as determined by the Faculty Council or Chapter advisor in cases of failure to complete outlined duties. If a student is on probation they are subject to the following.

- a. No participation in Luncheon, Induction Ceremony, and Trip in the current year of the offense
- b. Projects must continue to be completed
- c. New year begins with no disciplinary action in place
- d. Second offense within a student's NHS career results in a return to the faculty council for dismissal consideration.
- e. If a senior is on probation, and does not commit a second offense, the student may wear the NHS Stole at graduation.

4. Officers that are deemed to be violating one of the pillars of NHS they are subject to removal from their office.

5. Appeals may go through the same process as disciplinary appeals. No appeals to the National Council will be heard.
